

Deniliquin on the Edwards River. This meant that his bees were stranded for seven months in NSW, and he missed out on the lucrative pollinating season with Victoria's crops.

Then came the floods and an unseasonal spell of cool weather. It has not been a happy time for bees! They need nectar and pollen all year round, which means that hives need to be constantly shifted to follow the honey flow.

The good news is that when the Times spoke to Lindsay last week, his hives were now back in Victoria after two days of hard work. "The move was quick, short and sharp, and I'm so relieved the hives are back," Lindsay said. "It'll be ironbark and grey box for the bees now, and it's important to get them into good shape. From now until May makes a big difference in beekeeping. We need to build up momentum to get the bees through winter and ready for the almond blossom in August."

But so far, 2023 is looking very bullish. It'll be business as usual.'

Warral Maldon is a large operation, and there are now around 3,500 hives that need constant tending. Over 150 tonnes of honey and 2,000kg of beeswax are produced each year at the Warral Maldon factory in Boundary Road. Much of Warral's output is destined for the wholesale market, but there is a retail shop on the premises that sells honey, honeycomb and beeswax products.

Lindsay is the fifth generation of his family to work in the honey industry. And he loves his bees. "Did you know that a third of what we eat starts with a bee hive?" he said. "Five years ago, 40 to 50 billion dollars was directly attributed to bee pollination in the agriculture sector in Australia. That figure would be much higher now. Bees have a vital part to play in our economy and in feeding the world."

THE Times spoke to Porcupine Village owner Frank Hutchinson this week about the recent shutdown of works at the site.

From the start of this project, Frank and the management team were taking advice from a Town Planning consultant with over 30 years' experience. Unfortunately, some of this advice was flawed, specifically around what could and couldn't be done prior to permits being approved.

Frank is now working with a Melbourne-based group of town planners who have a great deal of experience in dealing with complex planning issues. He was meeting with them this week in order to work through the issues that to date have bedevilled the development at Porcupine Village.

"I'm confident that these planners will be able to guide the project through the planning process without any further problems," Frank said. "It has been a difficult time, and there have been instances where we didn't realise that we had overstepped the line. Ultimately, we take responsibility for that.

Correction

THE article in last week's Times that covered the Twilight Market contained some errors.

The Market, and also the Twilight Dinner, were organised by Pamela Jewson under the auspices of not-for-profit group Maldon Eat Drink Events Inc. The article did not make mention of this group, but instead referred to Pamela's role as Secretary of Maldon Inc. As is the case with many people in Maldon who are on more than one committee, Pamela is indeed Maldon Inc. secretary. But it is through her role on the Maldon Eat Drink Events Inc Committee - NOT as Maldon Inc Secretary - that she organised the Market and the Dinner.

The article also directed readers to the Maldon Inc website. This information was incorrect; while Maldon Inc is supportive of the Twilight Market and the Twilight Dinner, it plays no part in the organisation and administration of these events.

And it is Felicity Howard, not Pamela, who should be acknowledged as the person who worked hard in her role as Market Coordinator to make the Twilight Market a success by inviting a diversity of stallholders to participate.

The Times apologises for these inaccuracies.

Porcupine Village Update

The most difficult part is that we had to put 13 contractors and employees off. From now on, we will be getting expert advice and making sure that everything we do is in line with council requirements."

Frank is very supportive of his managers Debra and Doug Baird, who he said have worked hard on the project. "They're straightforward and honest people with a high degree of integrity and they are doing an outstanding job," he said.

When it comes to the large white marquee, which has attracted some negative comments, Frank said that it is planned to soften the visual impact by using various methods, such as high brush fencing and natural colours.

A businessman of many years standing, Frank is involved in a family-run company in the automotive industry. "So you could say that I have business experience, but not a lot in the tourism industry," Frank said. "But Porcupine Village is something that I'm very enthusiastic about. It will be a wonderful development and will benefit not just Maldon, but the whole Central Victorian region."

Frank emphasised that during the process of applying for a planning permit, his door is open. "We want to work with everyone," he said. "We want to sit down and talk to people both groups and individuals. Let's work together. Our planning submission is available online for anyone to see. These complex projects require sign-off from a whole range of regulatory bodies (CFA, Vicroads etc.). Most of these bodies have approved our plan, some with conditions that we need to comply with."

Crunch Time for Aged Care Services?

MOUNT Alexander Shire currently provides aged care services to more than 800 residents across the shire. It is asking community members for input on aged care services ahead of changes to the Federal Government funding model that will come into effect from 1 July 2024.

Many councils across Victoria - and that includes the nearby City of Greater Bendigo and Macedon Ranges councils - have opted to cease providing home care aged support services as of 1 July this year.

Mount Alexander Shire currently delivers aged care services such as personal care, home care, shopping, delivered meals, respite care, social support programs and more.

Council is holding a number of drop-in information sessions for residents to come along, ask questions, and provide feedback on their needs for in-home and aged care services. These are being held on:

- Monday 13 February - 9.30am to 11.30am, 4pm to 6pm and 6.30pm to 8pm.

- Wednesday 15 February - 9.30am to 11.30am. All sessions are being held at the Castlemaine Town Hall, 25 Lyttleton Street, Castlemaine.

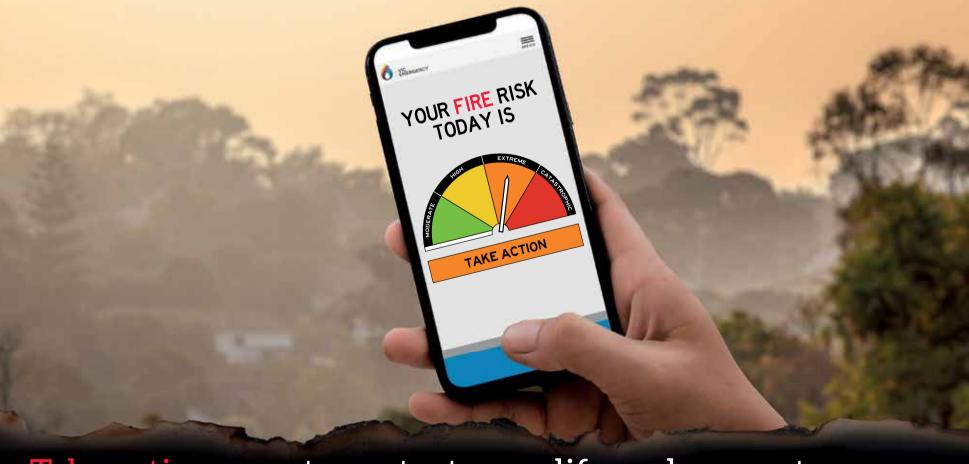

-Tuesday 14 February - 9.30am to 11.30am. This session is being held at the Maldon Neighbourhood Centre. -Other ways to have your say include:

- Visit www.shape.mountalexander.vic.gov.au and complete the online survey.
- Download and print the survey from www.shape.mountalexander.vic.gov.au and send it back.
- Call Council to provide input on 5471 1700.
- Email your feedback to info@mountalexander.vic.gov.au.
- Pop in to the Civic Centre in Castlemaine and provide feedback face-to-face.
- Pick up a hardcopy survey from the Civic Centre in Castlemaine, Castlemaine Library, in the mail (for all current direct clients), and at a drop-in session. Submissions close on Friday 17 February.

For more information, contact Mount Alexander Shire Council's Manager Community Wellbeing, Rosalie Rogers, on 5471 1700 or r.rogers@mountalexander.vic.gov.au.

Readers, please note well the timeline that council has specified. If you were to attend an information session on 14 February at the Maldon Neighbourhood Centre, you have ONLY THREE DAYS to give your fully-informed point of view as the deadline for submissions is on 17 February.

As one Maldon-based recipient of Council's home and aged care services commented to the Times this week, "If they were serious about wanting our input, surely they'd give us a bit more time to make up our minds."

New Traineeships at Dhelkaya

DHELKAYA Health is taking part in a 12-month Alcohol and other Drugs (AOD) training program that is set to kick off in early 2023. This is a State Government initiative to help upskill AOD trainees undertaking a Certificate IV in Alcohol and Other Drugs. Dhelkaya Health will support trainees as they learn practical clinical skills in supporting people with alcohol and other drug-related issues.

With State Government funding provided for two trainees to take part, the project aims to increase the number of skilled professionals working locally in this important area of work. Students who have already commenced study in this area are eligible, as are those who are keen to study in AOD.

The traineeship positions will be advertised shortly on the Dhelkaya Health website and via the SEEK.com website.

If you or someone you know is interested and would like to learn more, look out for the upcoming traineeship application at www.castlemainehealth.org.au or email Julie Sutcliffe at jsutcliffe@cdch.com.au.

Blue Green Algae Warning

GOULBURN-MURRAY Water is warning people and their pets to avoid direct contact with water at Laanecoorie Reservoir after high levels of toxic blue-green algae were detected. Warning signs will be placed at formal recreational areas around the reservoir and will remain in place while high levels are present.

The reservoir will not be closed, remaining open to visitors to sightsee and enjoy other activities that do not involve direct contact with the water.

Keep up to date with current blue-green algae warnings at www.gmwater.com.au/news/bga or by calling 1800 013 357.

Council Grants

ARE you working on a community-centred project or event? Apply for the next round of Council grants to get things up and running. Council offers two grant programs during this round: Community Grants and Events Grants.

The Community Grants program supports local groups and individuals who are developing new and emerging community projects, and the Events Grants program supports groups who are running public events.

The last round of Community Grants saw 15 groups benefit from the program. Another 15 groups benefited from the last round of Events Grants, including the Maldon Twilight Dinner and Newstead Live.

Mount Alexander Shire Council's Director of Corporate and Community Services, Lisa Knight, said that the community and events grants programs are an important way for Council to support exciting local projects and events.

'We have such a creative and engaged community in Mount Alexander Shire," said Ms Knight, "and there are so many incredible projects and events happening in our community that focus on inclusivity, connectedness and growth. I encourage everyone who has a project idea or is thinking about an upcoming event to apply, especially if you're new to the program.'

Applications for community grants opened on Monday 30 January and they close on Monday 20 February. Two funding streams are available: small grants, which are up to $3,000 and partnership grants, which are up to $10,000.

Applications for events grants open on Monday 20 February and close on Monday 13 March. Three funding streams are available: $1,000, $2,000 and $3,000.

In addition to these streams, there are also quick response grants, which are available all year round and can provide up to $500 per event.

For application forms, details on previously funded projects and more information on both Community Grants and Events Grants, visit www.mountalexander. vic.gov.au/Grants.

To speak to a member of Council staff to discuss your application, call 5471 1700 or email grants@mountalexander.vic.gov.au.

Positioned behind a picket fence in a native bushland setting, the property consists of four bedrooms, multiple living spaces, an open fireplace, a fenced dam in woodlands and extensive shedding. With recent updates, the red brick residence is well maintained and designed for relaxed, easy family living and entertaining. Soak up the quiet surroundings from the wraparound slate tiled verandah, wander the 2-acre property past the fenced dam, discover local flora and fauna and enjoy hosting family and friends utilising the paved patio with built-in umbrella. Enter the property via one of the two driveways, and head to the residence up the paved brick circular drive. There's parking for multiple vehicles, trailers, caravan and more, with a double garage under the home's roofline.

KNOW THE COLOURS TAKE THE ACTIONS TO SURVIVE

EMERGENCY KIT

Always check the new Fire Danger Ratings. Across Australia, the Fire Danger Rating system has changed. Using real-time scientific data, it now gives you a more accurate rating of the risk level if a fire was to start in your area. Each colour represents the actions you need to take to stay safe. If it's orange, the fire risk is Extreme, so you need to take action now and be ready to go. The safest option is to leave early.

Plan. Act. Survive.

Porcupine Resort

I was so optimistic and excited when Porcupine Village found a new owner who intended to restore the very neglected, existing infrastructure. I was optimistic that the restored historic village and motel units would bring renewed tourist business to our community and excited that we'd have another venue for dinner outings. I've dined at the restaurant several times already and am very impressed; I think it's now the best option in town.

When the large white marquee was erected last Easter for a wedding function, I assumed it was a temporary structure. However, after the wedding, every time I drove past, and it was still there, my blood pressure would rise higher. I think it is extremely inappropriate and should never be permitted in the location along this major approach road to our heritage town. Over the past many months, I've continued to drive past the marquee feeling very angry, assuming that the Shire had permitted this structure. I also assumed that I'd missed the opportunity to object to its permit.

Since I recently became aware that the owner does not have an approved permit for this marquee, I am even more upset! It does, in fact, contravene Mt. Alexander Shire's Significant Landscape Overlay 1 and 3. I've since become aware that other works have been performed without an approved permit, about the proposed loss of native habitat and heritage gold-mining landscape, the potential problems with sewerage treatment and animal enclosures; all for the construction of a totally new, excessive, 'resort-style' development.

I feel like I've been cheated and fooled by the new owner/ developer. I originally believed Maldon's community was gaining a restored Porcupine Village, but what we're getting is an enormous private business venture that will be unlikely to bring increased patrons to other businesses in town. I've also read the comments posted on the Maldon Notice Board Facebook page, which have led to much stress and anxiety in our community, and for this reason, I have also decided not to go public.

All these very disappointing factors have led me to submit an objection to Mt. Alexander Shire. I chose to live in Maldon because of its unique heritage features and charm. Every time one of these features is altered, the original heritage values of our town are gradually eroded and lost forever. Name and Address supplied

Maldon Streetscape Rejuvenation Project

For those in the Mount Alexander Shire who have an appreciation for Maldon as Australia's First Notable Town, the current changes to the town centre are cause for much concern.

Installing power underground as part of the Streetscape Rejuvenation Project has been a superb success. Not so, the rest of the project. It started with a joke and is ending as a travesty! Gravesites in Main Street evolved into ducks on ponds, and we all had a good chuckle. We didn't know that much worse was to come.

Any regard for the uniqueness of Maldon appears to have been completely ignored with the adoption of stock, non-specific designs that are unsightly, lack cohesiveness, are hazardous, and are not at all suited to Australia's First Notable Town.

Are the unique, significant stone gutters lost to us forever, or will there be remedial works undertaken to rectify the mortaring and laying patterns so inconsiderately used? Second-hand garden sleepers bolted onto the roadway as a design feature – come on!

Oversized tree outstands that seem to keep the water AWAY from the trees and just too far out onto the road; high edges on crossovers presenting a trip hazard for pedestrians; road excavations again and again on multiple occasions; and pedestrian crossings that aren't really.

Where did these ideas come from? Did the planners even visit Maldon? It all seems to be symptomatic of what has happened to design and planning in Maldon; very generic, with no consideration given to its unique and original character. Do we have to accept this second-rate design and workmanship? $4.5 million, what a waste of our taxes. Will Council step up and rectify the problems? Can they?

I urge those dissatisfied with the project to make your concerns known to the Minister for Local Government, the CEO of Mount Alexander Shire and our Councillor S. Gardner. Whilst I have had no response from the last two, who knows, you may be lucky!

V. Evans Maldon

Decision Soon

30 Lowther Street - permit for nine-lot subdivision, removal of native and non-native vegetation

It is to be hoped that there may be people in the Maldon vicinity who have concerns re. the above application. The land is close to the junction between Lowther Street and High Street and is the western gateway into Maldon. The land supports various wildlife and has, on its perimeter adjacent to Lowther Street, a magnificent, healthy old oak tree. The future of this tree is uncertain. It would be a sad loss to the streetscape should it be felled.

Nine lots would seem to be a case of overdevelopment and inconsistent with other recent properties built along the same side of the road on larger individual blocks towards the Church Street junction. Due to its proximity to the High Street junction, there seems to be a potentially dangerous situation. This is the designated route for large trucks. The application includes three access points directly onto Lowther Street within metres of each other. One would hope that the Road Safety Authority would have grave concerns.

This particular development may set a precedent of greater density for future projects and is something that should not be happening in Maldon if it is to retain its appeal.

Comments / Objections can be submitted to the shire and time is short. Please support this move to drastically reduce this overdevelopment which will be detrimental to the nature of Maldon.

Will Councillors examine this application carefully? As it stands, it would set an undesirable precedent for the future. Concerned Resident Maldon

My Garden Helpers

I believe that there's an old saying that there's nothing like a small community for bringing out the best in people (or even sometimes we might think the worst), but this week I want to share a little story of kindness.

As many of you know, my garden is large and despite lots of work by me, my friend Winsome who often pops over to pull out some weeds and now my gardener Kingsley, it has got somewhat out of control during the past few months. Can you imagine my delight and amazement when some neighbours from 'up the road' arrived to say they'd like to help me?

On Sunday, the brother and sister team rolled up and worked so hard in a couple of big areas. They stayed for a long time (even working in the rain) and those 'out of control' areas are now looking much more loved. If you're a religious person you'd have to think that this was very practical Christianity. They say that they're even coming back to clear up a few more areas and once things are a bit under control Kingsley and l should be able to keep them that way. I think I'm too scared not to!!!

Thank you dear Megan and Dale. I've known your family for so many years and your mother, uncle and aunts and grandmother would be so proud of you. May I stress that this all happened without me saying a word about needing help and these people are already busy with a large garden of their own and other commitments. Joy Leneaux-Gale

Lovely Lantern Parade

by Maldon Primary School Students

Last year the Maldon Eat Drink Events Inc invited Maldon Primary School to be part of their first-ever night market and lantern parade as part of Maldon's Twilight Festival weekend. The school was very excited to be part of this event, so Kirby Kneebone, our Art teacher, worked with the students to create beautiful lanterns for the parade on Friday, 20 January 2022. Even though this event was in the school holidays, the number of students and families attending was high, and the atmosphere was fantastic.

Here's what some of the students had to say about the night:

Darcy - I was holding a lantern. Mine was a dragon egg. My sister was in the parade too. My mum, dad, poppy and nanny were there.

Daisy – I really liked making the lanterns. Me and my brother went in the parade.

James – It was fun because there was music and there was colourful lights.

Cohen – It was fun because you got to walk around with your friends. It was relaxing!

Bjorn – It was fun because we got time to ourselves with our friends in the dark. I love the dark!

Martha – It was really great because everyone was clapping and cheering.

Evi – When you were walking in the parade and looked up, it looked like you were under the stars. It was really pretty.

Thank you to Felicity and the Maldon Eat Drink Events Inc Committee for inviting the school to be involved. Thanks also to Kirby, the students and their families for the enthusiasm and commitment they showed in preparing for the event as well as coming along for the parade. We all look forward to being involved again next year! Photos courtesy Kate Mahony.

Sizzling start to school

 $\stackrel{\scriptstyle }{\sim}$  Some of our preps enjoying their second day of school.

This year Maldon PS has welcomed 16 preps to our school. This is the highest number of prep enrolments we have had for many years. We have also had some new enrolments across the school, bringing our enrolment number to 84 students. Even though there were some nervous faces on day one, the staff and students were very excited to be back this week.

Some highlights from the preps about their first day: Archie – I liked playing with Sam. Rosie – I liked drawing and playing on the playground.

Elke – I liked seeing my sister in the other room and outside at play times.

Hayden – I liked playing with my friends.

Library News

MEMBERS will no doubt have noticed changes happening in the library. Our aim is to update the collection and make it more accessible. Here's a short rundown:

General fiction: You'll still find novels, including detectives, thrillers, science fiction and large print in the same rooms as always. But we're weeding out the doubles, the dilapidated and the never-reads to make more space on the shelves for new books.

Non-fiction: We'll be doing the same weeding with the non-fiction. With some shuffling around, we hope to make the corridor more inviting by judicious rearrangement so we can display and showcase what we have. The main room will continue to house the biographies and the 'Maldon Collection' but will also be revitalised by the addition of two new sections that reflect major issues affecting us today. The first section, 'Indigenous and Reconciliation', will contribute to the discussion as we lead up to this year's referendum and beyond. The second section will be 'Environment and Sustainability', which will house a growing collection of informative and highly readable books on this topic important to all our futures.

This will be ongoing for some time. In the short term, there may be a little muddle, but in the end, we'll have an enhanced collection with pleasing display space and books more easy to locate.

Don't forget to check our online catalogue for new additions to the collection: maldonlibrary.org.au/new-books/.

Book Reviews

On Our Selection: The Original Dad and Dave Stories by Steele Rudd

This Australian classic, first published in 1899, has entertained generations of readers with tales of the fictional Rudd family. Our version was published in 1995, complete with the original illustrations, to coincide with the release of the film Dad and Dave: On Our Selection. The front and back covers have photos of the cast, including Leo McKern (who played Dad), Joan Sutherland (Mother) and Geoffrey Rush (Dave). This little gem is not new to our collection, but for a long while now has been hidden away on a bottom shelf in the corridor amongst non-fiction books. Recently, we unearthed it, and interested readers will now find it in its new home in the fiction collection.

The Bird Man: The Extraordinary story of John Gould by Isabella Tree

We found this absorbing biography in the corridor and have relocated it to the main room along with the other biographies. John Gould was a 19th-century Englishman of humble beginnings who became the 'author and publisher of the most magnificent illustrative work on birds ever to have been created'. His work, including his exploration of Australia, played an important role in Darwin's theory of natural selection. The biography includes paintings either by Gould himself or others, including his wife, Elizabeth. The paintings are magnificent, and Gould's story intriguing. Maldon Library

Family Support Survey

MOUNT Alexander Shire Council is looking for input from parents and carers of children aged 8 to 12 and putting the call-out for feedback from children as well.

This information will guide Council and the community in working together to improve health and well-being and learning opportunities for children. Manager of Community Partnerships Paul Frye said that community feedback is integral to building a solid plan.

"We have so many knowledgeable parents and carers in our community, and their input makes a big difference when it comes to planning services for the future", said Mr Frye.

"We're also keen to hear directly from local children about what they need. Kids aged 8-12 are transitioning from primary to secondary school, and it's a critical time to keep an eye on their social, emotional and health outcomes.

"The current Middle Years Plan was created before COVID-19. We'd like to understand how the lives of our families have changed and if we need to adjust our services, programs and activities".

You can have your say:

- Visit www.shape.mountalexander.vic.gov.au and complete either the parents and carers survey or the kids-only survey.
- Drop in to a pop-up session to provide feedback and have your questions answered by Council staff. Details on future pop-up sessions will be posted on Council's Facebook page and also on www.shape.mountalexander. vic.gov.au.
- Call Council to provide input on 5471 1700.
- Email your feedback to info@mountalexander.vic.gov.au.Pop into the Civic Centre in Castlemaine and provide
- feedback face-to-face.Pick up a hardcopy survey from the Civic Centre in
- Castlemaine.

Submissions close on Sunday, 19 February.

IMT - In Maldon Today Radio Program

TODAY Nancy and EC meet the Tarrangower Times' latest incumbent of a long and distinguished line of editors over the past centuries. Her name is Melanie Barnes, and Nancy being one of that line makes this a generation-gap special.

Last Friday, Lauren Adele Stevens, Ian Stevens, and Alison Parko discussed all things sweet and sticky, honey with Lindsay 'I love bees' Calloway (pictured) of Warral Honey, Maldon. Bee and honey puns buzzed around the studio. What a wealth of honey knowledge does Lindsay have! The only thing he refused to share was where he locates his hives!!! Great music, great chat and updates on what's sweet in Maldon!

Next week crusty Nancy and that loafer Mike talk with the well-bred Rebecca Barnett, Maldon Bakery's new prima donna – plus an unnamed baker from whom we will prise the secrets of the oven.

Road Fatality

A 30-year-old woman died following a two-vehicle collision in Laanecoorie on Monday.

The female driver was the only occupant of a blue Mazda hatchback, colliding with a Mitsubishi Triton utility at about 8.10am.

The collision occurred at the intersection of the Bendigo-Maryborough Road and the Bridgewater-Maldon Road. Paramedics treated the two people, and tragically, the female driver passed away at the scene. The driver of the Mitsubishi, a man in his 50s, was taken to Bendigo Hospital for observation and is now in a stable condition. Investigations into the accident are ongoing.

Stolen Signs

DURING the recent successful Twilight events in Maldon, it was a sad discovery for volunteers to find that some of the community signs had been stolen.

Six signs were taken from two different areas: High Street and Francis Street. These were Detour and Arrow signs used for street closures and are used for many events such as the Maldon Market, Easter Fair, Folk Festival and many more such events. These types of events are volunteer-run on a tight budget and rely on community support for their success. Having to pay for new signs is a real blow to these efforts.

After a notice was posted on Maldon's Community page on Facebook, two signs were returned. It seems the signs may have been stolen in separate incidents, and a second lot of culprits are still at large. The signs can be returned to the Maldon Vintage Machinery Museum with no questions asked.

MALDON BRIDGE CLUB ON LOCATION

DUE to the influx of visitors to the town for the Australia Day holiday, we went on location to the Neighbourhood Centre as our Maldon Hotel venue was very busy.

It was great to be able to take in the surroundings and recall the history of what was originally known as the Scots Presbyterian Church. Evidently, the foundation stone was laid in 1905 following the original weatherboard building built in 1860, being replaced. The beautiful stained glass windows really took our attention with the detail admired by all.

All was in readiness at the five tables for our afternoon of Bridge play, thanks to Danny and his helpers. The draw was announced, positions sorted, and it was game on! What would the cards reveal?

As each hand was viewed and played, it was apparent that the 'shufflers' from last week had made sure we would have to think very hard about what contract to achieve successfully. Alas, with suit absences along with opening bids points over-looked by the opposition, it was indeed a very mixed and confusing day for making a decent score or two! A double here and there gone astray was also another stumbling block for some. Nevertheless, with five tables in play, there was plenty to think about as we played out each board.

Time was up, our scorers were quickly onto the job as usual, and the scores were all ready to be announced.

In first place with 86 points were Louise and Kevin, The duo have played consistently during the past weeks and great to have them combine for a win. Second place went to Danny and Prakash, the quiet achievers, with 84 points. One point away was Newstead Jo and Lyn with 83 points. Fourth place went to Maldon Jo and Aileen with 78 points. Lillian and Liz were fifth with 75 points, followed by Werner and Associates with 71 points in sixth place. Well done to all.

We paused for our afternoon tea break, which is always welcome. Special treats, including traditional lamingtons, were organised by Danny and Meredith, who brought along a freshly baked apple cake, all of which was eagerly consumed. A big thank you to Danny for organising the venue, which was appreciated by all. Until next week......

Whatever your age group or skills please feel free to join us each Thursday at the Maldon Hotel 1.15 pm to 4.30 pm to help us in our endeavours to USE IT OR LOSE IT

This column deals with broader pet-related issues, not specific health problems. If your pet is unwell, then a diagnosis can only be made by a visit to the vet.

Simply write to editor@ tarrangowertimes.com.au, and we will pass your question on to Andrea. You can also drop a note into the door of the Times office. We are happy to include your name plus the name of your pet in the paper, but we will withhold either one or both of those names if you don't wish to have them published.

Dear Andrea,

I have a Jack Russell who follows me everywhere and stares at me when I am sitting down. Why does he stare at me? Mel

Hi Mel,

There are a few reasons dogs may follow us around and stare at us, and in many cases, this behaviour stems from them trying to communicate something to us or waiting for a command. If a dog is sitting and staring at you, have a look at what their body language might be saying. Are their ears pricked and their head cocked in curiosity or listening for a verbal cue? Are their eyes alert or fearful? Is their body relaxed or rigid, tail wagging or still? Dogs have many ways to communicate with us using their bodies, and it can take a bit of practice to interpret what they may be trying to say.

A dog that follows its owner around may be looking for interaction or attention. Do you have a routine for walking your dog or a set feeding time? They could be telling you it's time to grab the lead and take them for a walk or have some play time outside. If it's time for a meal, they may be following you around, hoping you'll go to the fridge or pantry and get their food ready. If you have a strong bond with your dog, it may stare at you simply because they are waiting for your companionship or company. Some dogs have a personality that makes them more likely to want to be close to their human counterparts. It is possible that a dog that constantly follows its owner around may have a clingy personality or suffer from a bit of separation anxiety. If this is the case, training your dog to become more independent or having ways to manage their anxiety may help them feel a bit more comfortable in their own company, especially when they're at home on their own.

Let's create some stories!

DO you love telling, hearing and writing stories? Then why not check out a fun interactive workshop entitled 'Let's create some stories' at Maldon Athenaeum Library on Thursday, February 9, from 1pm-2.30pm?

This initial workshop will be facilitated by the artistic director of Hobo Playhouse Theatre Company, Jeffrey Bryant Jones. The first session will include an ice breaker, warm-up, a story-making exercise and a presentation of stories at the end. The aim is to encourage people to share their stories, create some new ones and have a few laughs along the way.

The workshop is suitable for adults aged 18-plus and will be limited to eight participants. Admission is by gold coin donation to the Maldon Athenaeum Library on the day. To register your attendance, please email Jeff at hoboplayhouse@yahoo.com.

Maldon Landfill

MT Alexander Shire Council will be resuming the management and operation of the Maldon and Castlemaine transfer stations following DRE Earthenviro's contract expiring.

After more than 10 years of waste management facilities being operated by contractors, Council has decided to bring the service in-house from 1 February 2023.

Council would like to thank DRE Earthenviro for their services over the years. The company began managing both the Maldon and Castlemaine facilities in late 2015 and later helped transition the Castlemaine site to become a transfer station when the landfill closed in 2020.

The Council-run transfer stations are expected to result in more effective sorting and recovery of valuable resources, and increased flexibility to meet changes in the sector as well as meeting community needs.

Free RATs

THE Victorian Government announced recently that Rapid Antigen Tests would be freely available at local council offices but so far none have been made available at the Mt Alexander Shire Council office.

The Times spoke to the Shire Council and was informed that "... Council is yet to receive Rapid Antigen Tests (RATs) from the Victorian Government following their recent announcement." The Times will keep you updated on this matter.

A WORD FROM YOUR LOCAL CHURCH ASAP

Have you ever thought about the abbreviation ASAP? Generally, we think of it as meaning 'As Soon As Possible' which in so many ways brings even more hurry and stress into our lives. It must be done, 'As Soon As Possible'. Maybe if we think of this abbreviation differently, we will begin to find a new way to deal with the rough days and experience less hurry and stress in our lives.

When there is a lot of work to do, deadlines to meet and we don't seem to have any spare time, there is another ASAP available. In the Bible, Philippians 4 verse 6 says, 'Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God'. This ASAP means 'Always Say A Prayer'.

If events demand you to hurry, take the time to ASAP - 'Always Say A Prayer'.

If you are having a family crisis, give the situation over to God, ASAP 'Always Say A Prayer'. If it seems your worries and problems are too much to bear then slow down and ASAP, 'Always Say A Prayer'. If you feel lost and alone, ASAP, 'Always Say A Prayer'.

God knows how stressful life is, and He wants to ease our cares. Believe it or not, He will respond to our needs because He knows us and He is always there.

So when things are tough, or even if everything is smooth, don't neglect the ASAP - 'Always say a prayer'. Pastor Gavin Alexander

TOMMY BENT IN MALDON

The Victorian Premier, Thomas Bent, arrived in Maldon by train on the evening of Thursday 7 September 1905. Local MLA, Harry Lawson, had invited him to visit the town and present the prizes at the local ANA musical and elocutionary competitions. The competitions were held over five days at the Masonic Hall (now the Christmas Shop) and were to culminate in a grand concert on Friday night.

In the 1880s, Tommy Bent had earned a reputation as one of Victoria's most colourful and corrupt politicians. Despite being discredited and losing his seat in 1894, he returned to politics in 1900 and by 1904 found himself both Victoria's Premier and Treasurer.

After arriving from Castlemaine on the evening train, Bent and Lawson went straight to the Masonic Hall, where the impromptu speech contest was taking place. The audience welcomed him enthusiastically and broke into an original song to the tune of 'Dolly Gray' that ended with the lines,

We will ask no awkward questions, Such as how's your surplus spent. We'll not mention the elections, What ho! Tommy Bent.

Bent acknowledged the crowd but said he thought their poetry was hardly up to Shakespeare's standards. He then replied with his own verse, This is a night for fun and frolic, To carry off spleen, physic, dull care, and colic

Those who wish to be joyous and gay, Try a trip to the Masonic Hall at Maldon to drive dull care away.

Bent remained in the audience until the night's competition was completed and stayed in Maldon overnight. The next day he visited the Hospital and the North British mine before travelling to Laanecoorie where he visited the State School. On returning to Maldon, Bent and Lawson dined with the Shire Council and discussed funding for road projects in the Shire,

In the evening, the ANA competitions culminated with a grand concert featuring all the prize winners. A capacity audience filled the Masonic Hall in anticipation not only of the planned entertainment but also to hear the Premier speak.

Bent did not disappoint the crowd. Before distributing the prizes, he praised the ANA for the role their competitions played in community education and then, in response to calls from the audience, recite some verse and sang a comic song. After presenting the prizes, Bent provided an encore by reciting passages from The Taming of the Shrew and Romeo and Juliet.

ON Sunday 29 January, an elite group of piste artistes gathered once more on the Penny School piste to kick off the new year with a bang in lovely cool weather. But first, a massive clean-up operation was conducted with rakes and even a leaf blower. Then new green plastic chairs provided by Joan were put in place, and the games began.

Our MC Geoff Mac welcomed a new player Lindsay before we got down to the serious business of playing under an overcast sky. By the time we started the second set of games, the rain started to spit gently at first, but by the end of the final game, the players were rather damp, despite toting tastefully tonal umbrellas in various shades of blue and mauve.

The winners' chocolates went to Viv and Geoff, with 2 wins and +16 points. Second place went to Barb, Phil, and Judy, with 1 win and +9 points. Followed in third place by Andrew and Ann, with 1 win and +5 points.

Maxeen, Steve, and Carole came fourth, with 1 win and -1 point. Cap'n P, EC, and Mme Bleue (The IMT Team) came fifth with 1 win and - 8 points. Lucky last were Joan and Lindsay with 0 wins and - 21 points, AND the losers' chocolates.

Our next games will be on 12 February at 1.45 for a 2pm start, on the Penny School piste. New players are always welcome. You just need a set of boules and a desire for a bit of fellership', as my Aunty Flo used to say. Mme Bleue

MALDON BOWLS CLUB NEWS

LAST Saturday 28 January, Maldon played against Talbot at home. The results were excellent.

Sean's team of Ellen, Karen and Peter lost a close match, 16 to 18. They won 12 of the 21 ends and fought back well during the game. After 12 ends, the team was down 7 to 15 but came home strongly to fall short by only two points.

Annette's team of Phil, Melissa and Darrin were victors 19 to 13. A 'never say die' attitude saw them come back from 10to 3 down to 10 to 8 at the halfway mark. They then won seven of the last nine ends to take victory 19 to 13.

Jim's team of Ken, Dean and Eric won 21 to 15. Of the 21 ends played, they won 13 ends. They scored two lots of 4 for the day against very strong opposition. A great team effort.

In Bowls, a win on a rink of four players scores 2 points. On the weekend, Maldon won on two rinks, so scored 4 points and Talbot won on one rink, so scored 2 points. The total number of shots of the three teams are added together and decides who receives the major points for the day. Maldon scored 56 shots, and Talbot scored 46 shots hence Maldon received the big 10 points for the day. So Maldon won 14 points to Talbot 2. Great work by Maldon.

On Sunday, our two Club Champions, Angie and Sean, went over to Avoca to play off against the other Club Champions in the district. Both played great Bowls but were narrowly defeated by their opposition. They both did our club proud. Well done!

Good bowling all. Peter Sedgwick
