MALDON

WINS

BY ONE POINT!

was a tight score in the end, but a fantastic day of footy when the Maldon and Newstead teams faced off on Saturday 5 July. The sky was blue and supporters from both towns mingled by the Newstead club rooms and around the perimeter fence. Footy plays a great role in small communities and footy fans value the way it supports the development of young people from one generation to the next.

People were enjoying it in many different ways on Saturday, which ended in a win for Maldon of just one point (see page 24 for scores and a full rundown of the action). There were young families with players in multiple teams; partners-of-players catching up on the sidelines; parents, fans. Deryn, also known as Dook, cheerfully stated that he has been handling the gate at games for decades and described the value of footy as a way for boys to start young and progress through the ranks, supported all the way.

As players yelled: "Pivot, pivot, squeeze, squeeze," Reana watched from the sidelines in a Maldon beanie, barracking for her partner and sons. She summarised the value of local footy in a succinct phrase: "Community spirit." Energetic sportsman Xavier, who plays for Maldon, said it was beneficial to his mental health: "It kind of gets me in the right frame of mind."

With a bustling canteen, cosy corners for chatting and such nail biting action on the field, the footy is a great place to get out and get together on a winter day. Get out and support your team! It's a home game for Maldon this weekend: Maldon is up against Maryborough on Saturday 12 July at the Bill Woodful Reserve, Maldon.

Winning woollies in winter

Patrick with petals, Enchanted Rose and Weird, Wonderful Maddy in their brilliant beanies.

THE Maldon in Winter Festival continues with lovely community events bringing people together in various locations around town. On Saturday 5 July, this included an open day at Maldon Museum and a Beanie Parade on Main Street, both attracting lots of interest and smiles.

At the Maldon District Museum, there was constant foot traffic and animated chatter because it's a great place to discuss all sorts of things that are important to residents, including the wonderful history of the local buildings and land. The committee and researchers of the Maldon Museum & Archives Association were enjoying a convivial afternoon tea, having created a great and welcoming atmosphere at the museum. Visitors on the day, greeted at the entrance with a musical video showing historic photos of Maldon icons, were reportedly a mix of tourists and new locals.

And for a fashion parade with a difference, who could go past the Beanie Parade on Main Street? Winter weather was appropriate for the occasion — cold and drizzly — and the parade was an all-ages affair with lots of families cheering along. But young people were the absolute stars of the day.

Young Patrick was pleased as punch with his win for 'Best Technical', claiming he helped his mum to crochet his wonderful hat and saying he liked it because: "It's pretty." Covered in many detailed yarn flowers, it certainly was pretty and must have taken many hours to create.

Meanwhile, the other major prizes were taken out by crafters and besties Maddie and Rose, who had both constructed very special beanies. Rose won the 'Enchanted' category and said she was inspired by nature. "I was going for a garden and then I added some animals," she explained, pointing out the birds and butterflies on her beanie. Maddie had aimed to make something unusual for the Weird and Wonderful category. "When I thought of 'Weird and Wonderful' it sounded the most fun," she laughed, adding that she had crocheted her favourite animal. "Octopuses are just funny." A close look at the beanie revealed that her big pink octopus was enjoying a (melting) ice cream cone and a coffee; definitely deserving of the 'Weird and Wonderful' prize. The winners were beaming as they posed with their prizes: enormous collections of candy from The Maldon Lolly Shop. Congratulations, what a fantastic display of clever craftiness and supportive community!

Deep Listening in Nature

A special event presented as part of the Maldon in Winter Festival program, 'Deep Listening in Nature' was an eloquent and persuasive talk by Andrew Skeoch on Sunday 6 July. The mood of the afternoon was set by the low lighting in the hall (illuminated only by historic stained-glass windows), perhaps helping to attune attendees to their aural senses.

Describing his field of Accoustic Ecology as being about a personal relationship with nature, Andrew said that while he had listened to birds since childhood, it wasn't until later in life that it occurred to him to really start listening to them, realising "how diverse and beautiful nature's sounds are. We are not taught to listen. We take it for granted," he said.

Andrew proceeded to use recorded sounds or soundscapes ("the sonic equivalent of a landscape") and projected spectrograms, which are a visual representation of sounds, to dive into the sounds made by birds. "This afternoon: get your ears tuned it, listen to specific species and how they use sound to get along in the world," he encouraged the people in the room.

Describing the fascinating physical attributes of birds, their social behaviours and their (often sophisticated) songs or calls, Andrew wove evolution into every point in his presentation. "The birds or creatures have evolved to support the way that they live," he stated. He demonstrated different songs and phrases, comparing them to a game and said the birds interact to change the song like a Mexican wave. "They're not just singing, they are listening; a form of acknowledging each other, working out their home ranges," he said. "They're singing with a common repertoire, the same sonic identity, becoming a community of birds."

Andrew concluded with a plea for humans to listen and learn from the diverse, cooperative relationships in nature, saying: "We have to rethink our relationship with the natural world.... Listening is a powerful way to do that." He said that people should undertake deep listening in nature not to learn about nature but to learn from nature.

This fascinating presentation was put together by Sally Dear and Maldon Neighbourhood Centre and it was wonderful to see a full house in attendance. To learn more about Andrew Skeoch's work and listen to his incredible nature recordings, visit: listeningearth.com/andrewskeoch.

Cemetery receives defibrillator

Christine Fitzgerald receiving the AED from Rhythm First Aid representative, Nicole Gleeson.

MALDON General Cemetery recently received an automated external defibrillator (AED) supplied by local first aid team, Rhythm First Aid which has also provided practical training on the device and general first aid for cemetery staff. Chair of the Maldon Cemetery Trust, Christine Fitzgerald, said: "Rhythm First Aid is a Maldon business and we are grateful to have such a professional team within our community."

Maldon & District Community Bank provided full funding for the device under a recent round of their Community Partnership Program. Additional funding for a comprehensive first aid kit was also provided.

Christine said the provision of the defibrillator will improve the safety of people attending the cemetery. "We are very grateful for the support we receive from Bendigo Bank. The cemetery has limited funds and the Community Partnership Program has provided a number of grants for us over recent times. I would like to thank Maldon & District Community Bank for their wonderful support."

Goth Festival gears up

Tickets are on sale for the 2025 Goldfields Gothic Festival, which will take place in Maldon from Friday 1 to Sunday 3 August at various venues. Mark your calendars and remind friends to book accommodation before it is too late. The program includes fantastic music, fashion parade, Gothic Picnic, hearse parade and the return of the hugely popular Dark Market.

The official opening for the Festival is a brilliant idea: an event to explore and explain the history and influence of goth culture, hosted by local goth icon Crimson Strix (Gabrielle Kelly). The opening event will take place on Friday 1 August at the Maldon Vintage Machinery and Museum from 6.30pm and everyone is welcome.

The organisers have been updating the Goldfields Gothic Facebook page as the program of events grows; some are accessible only by purchasing a weekend ticket/wristband but many (including the picnic and the market) are free or by donation. Details and tickets at the Maldon Festivals website at: tinyurl.com/5e5whwtf.

Home solar batteries program

Local business owners Tash and Kirk from K.A.W. Solar and Electrical joined Federal member for Bendigo Lisa Chesters MP for an announcement in Castlemaine, on Tuesday 1 July where they were installing a solar battery system for a client who used the government's new Cheaper Home Batteries program. The government says the program will bring down the cost of a typical solar battery by around 30 per cent or $4,000, saving households with existing rooftop solar up to $1,100 off their power bill every year, while those installing a new solar and battery system could save up to $2,300 a year. For details about the program, visit: tinyurl.com/3kznyd6e.

Invest in small batch mobile olive processor

Small scale olive growers often struggle to harvest the minimum amount for processing by commercial contractors, so Bendigo-based The Long Road Olive Co-op is looking to solve this problem by purchasing a mobile processing line. A steering committee, driven by community advocate and passionate olive oil producer Ceilidh Meo, is forming the co-operative to foster community benefits for both olive producers and consumers. The catch is that the funds to purchase the processor must be raised by the end of July. "It's been an all-consuming project to get the co-op to where it is over the last 18 months, and we're not quite at incorporation stage, but we're just finalising the rules and disclosure statement, so we're really close," Ms Meo said. "And now we've launched a fundraising campaign via GoFundMe to ask for community support to purchase a community-owned asset." She explained that the mobile processor will also reduce transport costs for olive growers. "Savings in production costs translate to savings for consumers who purchase the oil from any small or medium scale producer. It's a win-win." To support, share or find out more about the project, visit the GoFundMe campaign at: gofund.me/e5518abc.

Council Community Grants program opens

The next round of Mount Alexander Community Grants opens next Monday 14 July and closes on Monday 4 August, aiming to support innovative community projects that align with the Council's strategic objectives. Information sessions will take place to provide more information: Council Grants officers will answer questions and provide one-on-one guidance about your application and its eligibility. The sessions will both take place on Tuesday 23 July; from 12.30pm to 2pm at Newstead Community Centre and from 4pm to 5.30pm at Castlemaine Town Hall Foyer

Meanwhile, Quick Response Youth Grant applications are open year-round. The Mount Alexander Shire Quick Response Youth Grant offers up to $1,000 to help young people (aged 10–25) actualise their ideas to bring people together, create something new, or run a local event.

Visit the Mount Alexander Shire Council website for details: tinyurl.com/2p9zftz3.

Mental health grants for rural communities

Foundation for Rural & Regional Renewal (FRRR) has grants up to $20,000 for projects that support the mental health and wellbeing of farmers and rural communities. The In a Good Place program is now open and closes on 14 August. Last month, FRRR's In a Good Place program awarded more than $88,000 in grants to not-for-profit (NFP) organisations including Schizy Inc, which operates in Maldon, Castlemaine, Rheola, Bridgewater and Wedderburn. FRRR will host a free, online grantseeker workshop on Wednesday 9 July at 2pm for NFPs and community groups wanting to learn more about the program. For more information and to register, visit FRRR's website at: frrr.org.au/funding.

Creative Projects given green light by government

Local creative projects have been allocated funding via the latest round of the Regional Arts Fund. Member for Bendigo Lisa Chesters MP visited the Castlemaine State Festival on Tuesday 1 July to announce a grant of $25,000 for its new stage production, Castlemaine – The Musical. An original production, Castlemaine – The Musical is designed to be a light-hearted celebration of all things Castlemaine, highlighting the work of volunteers in the arts, land care, the emergency services, and the various advocacy groups that make up the town. Another successful local applicant was Tara Gilbee of Fryerstown, who will receive funding to deliver workshops for Red Shed in Newstead, utilising skills acquired through a professional development and research exchange in relation to ecological and sustainable creative practices.

Kombi Konvention

THERE was a low rumbling in Maldon on Saturday; a distinctive guttural grumbling that could only belong to a Kombi. In fact Maldon was the lunch pit-stop for multiple Kombi Vans, visiting as part of a jovial weekend away for a bunch of friends who share a love of the curvaceous campers.

"We're camping in Bendigo at a few different spots and travelling around a bit, I've got to keep up with that lot!" René Felki told the TT in a bit of a rush, although he found time to pose proudly in front of his red van. René explained it had belonged to the Postmaster General and still retained its original patina. The Kombi group seemed to be an informal one, but they had named their weekend the "Dub Freeze" and were enjoying the attention attracted by their noisy and haphazard Kombi Parade.

Keys of Gold illuminates regional Victoria's Musical Heritage

THIS July, the inaugural Keys of Gold festival invites audiences on a month-long exploration of Central Victoria's rich musical tapestry.

Presented by Bendigo Fine Music, the festival offers 10 concerts across 7 historic venues in Bendigo, Castlemaine, Inglewood, and Maldon; showcasing 27 unique keyboard instruments and featuring 45 world-class performers including world-renowned concert organist Thomas Heywood.

More than a series of concerts, Keys of Gold is a journey through time, celebrating the craftsmanship, culture, and communities that have cherished these magnificent instruments. From grand cathedrals to intimate chapels, each venue resonates with history and artistry, offering audiences an immersive experience that bridges the past and present.

Curated and performed by some of Victoria's most gifted organists and musicians, Keys of Gold unveils the hidden majesty of regional heritage.

Festival highlights include

- Perfect Match

- There's a Crowd Pleaser
Sunday, 27 July 2025, 3:00 PM
St Paul's Cathedral, Bendigo

A grand finale featuring Thomas Heywood (organ), Alexey Yemtsov, and Yasmin Rowe (piano), delivering a program designed to delight audiences with beloved classics.

"Each of these instruments is a time capsule," says Thomas Heywood. "They are living, breathing artworks, crafted by hand, voiced for the acoustics of their space, and absolutely irreplaceable."

"Keys of Gold is about connecting people to that magic, reminding us that musical heritage lives not only in concert halls, but in the very heart of our regional communities."

Heritage crumbles under Council watch - reply

I don't disagree with the point that Mount Alexander Shire Council doesn't care about many of the outlying areas of the shire and various aspects of its heritage, not just Maldon.

The chimney at 'The Mill' in Castlemaine is privately owned, and presumably repair works carried out on it would have been privately funded. Even if the works were identified by MASC as part of the redevelopment of the site for its current purposes due to such close proximity to high public traffic on the site.

The management of the reserves surrounding Maldon happened well before the council amalgamations of the Kennett era c.1994-96. Much of this work was undertaken by the Land Conservation Council (now known as the Victorian Environment Assessment Council), which saw the development of the Maldon Historic Reserve Management Plan in 1986-88. The management of the Maldon Historic Reserve has passed through many government departments since the introduction of the Management Plan in 1988, starting with the Department of Conservation, Forest & Lands, Department of Natural Resources & Environment, and finally to Parks Victoria. But having said that, where there are parts of the reserve that fall under the operation and management via a local 'Committee of Management' generally these areas are then under the Department of Energy, Environment and Climate Action of Victoria (DEECA), as Parks Victoria cannot implement committees of management under their governing Act passed by Government Legislation. There are a number of reserves either within or surrounding Maldon that fall into this category – Bill Woodfull Reserve, Carmans Tunnel, Maldon Athenaeum, Maldon Caravan Park, and others. In many cases, these committees of management take on many forms, whether they are a community committee of management reporting directly to DEECA, or whether the local council is the committee of management reporting to DEECA, and then forms a local committee to manage the site.

As for the site of the Beehive Chimney the former Maldon Shire Council was certainly at the forefront of lobbying to get 17 perches of land surrounding the chimney reserved for Memorial purposes. This was gazetted in the Victorian Government Gazette on 23 December 1953 and was revoked in the Victorian Government Gazette on 23 September 1987 so that the area could be gazetted as part of the Maldon Historic Reserve.

While for the maintenance of the Beehive

Chimney, this has been either undertaken or proposed (as in the current instance) a number of times over the last 50 years. In 1974 there were major works undertaken on the chimney to repair it, which also included shortening its height due to damage from a lightning strike it sustained many years prior. This work was undertaken in a joint partnership between the former Maldon Shire Council and the Maldon Historical Promotion League. Then in 1996 there were minor repair works undertaken, predominately repointing of the brickwork by the Department of Natural Resources and Environment. Unfortunately, the Beehive Chimney hasn't had a maintenance schedule developed to try and alleviate the detrition to the brickwork and its overall structure for the long term.

Yours &c.

Wine myths busted

Debunking sabering fears and bottle lore

WINE has been around for thousands of years—and with it, plenty of myths, tall tales, and slightly exaggerated ‘rules’.

At Panacea Estate, we love a bit of wine tradition. We love the drama of popping corks, the elegance of swirling glasses, and yes—the sheer fun of sabering a sparkling bottle now and then. But we also believe in keeping wine accessible and fun, not intimidating.

So, let’s uncork some common myths—especially around big bottles, sabering, and other old-school wine ‘rules’—and separate fact from fiction.

Myth #1: sabering is dangerous and only for experts

Truth:

Sabering looks dangerous—but when done properly, it’s actually quite safe (and very fun). In fact, at Panacea Estate, we saber bottles at some events and it’s always a crowd favourite.

Sabering works because of physics, not brute force. Sparkling wine bottles are under high pressure—when you strike the seam just below the lip with a blunt blade (not sharp!), the pressure pops the neck cleanly.

Key tips for safe sabering:

- Chill the bottle well—cold glass is less brittle.
- Use a blunt knife or saber, not a kitchen knife.
- Aim the bottle away from people and valuables.
- Commit to the motion—hesitation causes accidents.

Sabering isn’t about skill—it’s about confidence, common sense, and a little showmanship.

Myth #2: Bigger bottles are just for show

Truth:

Large-format bottles aren’t just impressive to look at—they’re actually better for aging wine.

The reason? Oxygen exposure. In big bottles like magnums or imperials, there’s a lower ratio of oxygen to wine, which slows down the aging process. This means:

- More gradual development of flavour and aroma.
- Smoother, softer tannins over time.
- Longer life in the cellar.

That said, they’re also perfect for making a moment at celebrations, which honestly, isn’t such a bad reason to go big either.

Myth #3: Only expensive wines come in large bottles

Truth:

Not necessarily. While many producers reserve large formats for premium or special wines, there’s nothing stopping smaller wineries—like us—from bottling larger sizes simply for the joy of it.

At Panacea Estate, we have made double magnums and 6L Imperials for:

- Weddings
- Birthday Celebrations
- Just because we like a bit of fun!

They aren’t about price tags, they have all been gifts to date—they’re about creating an experience worth remembering.

Myth #4: Sparkling wines must be opened quietly

Truth:

The traditional ‘quiet hiss’ is lovely at a fine dining table—but sometimes, you want a pop!

There’s no strict rule here—it depends on the setting. A soft sigh might suit a dinner for two, while a hearty pop (or a saber swing) might be perfect for a gathering under the stars or a vineyard celebration.

At Panacea Estate, we believe wine should match the moment. Some nights call for a quiet pour. Others need a loud cheer and a cork flying across the paddock.

Myth #5: Older wine is always better

Truth:

Not all wines improve with age, and not every bottle benefits from sitting around for years.

Some wines—like young rosé or fresh, vibrant whites—are best enjoyed within a year or two of release. Others, like structured reds or barrel-aged wines, can evolve beautifully over time.

Our advice?

Drink what you love, when you love it. Wine is for enjoying, not stressing over.

On a personal note, I’ve seen or been told of every kind of wine myth that makes people nervous or uncertain. What I’ve learned is that wine is at its best when it brings people together. Sabers, big bottles, or everyday screw caps—it’s all part of the fun. At Panacea Estate, we’ll keep honouring traditions—but only the ones that add joy, not pressure.

If you have heard a weird wine myth or rule? Share it with us! We’d love to hear what wine “advice” you’ve been given—and maybe we can bust it together.

And if you’d like to try sabering with us sometime, keep an eye out for upcoming special events—we’re always happy to bring out the saber for a safe (and slightly dramatic) demonstration.

Add six bottles to your cart at panaceaestate.com.au, enter the code ‘TarrangowerTimes’ at checkout, and you’ll get one bottle free—just pay for five. Offer available exclusively to Tarrangower Times readers.

IN MALDON TODAY RADIO PROGRAM

IMT Bosun Stevo.

THERE has been a flood of complaints since the good ship IMT failed to launch last Friday. Our shipmates in listener-land were awash with tears and lamentations when Katrine and Nancy were all at sea and unable to interview Viv Markham. This week's shipping news has scheduled Ann and EC – but they too may be unable to lift their anchor and sail away with Pam Lyons to the Folk Festival preview due today.

In short, the MAINfm studio is currently in a watery grave following a leak in the head, while IMT is struggling to escape Davy Jones' locker. There is just one hope for us, one charismatic person with the skills to affix washers, stop up leaks, empty overflowing drains and take us into dry dock. Here he is pictured in his once-dry cabin. Save us, Bosun Stevo!

BLAST FROM THE PAST

A few Maldon earthquakes

MALDON occasionally experiences earthquakes mainly due to the Muckleford fault that runs north-south and crosses the Castlemaine Road between the Butchers Road cutting and the Muckleford Creek. The following are descriptions of two quakes that occurred in the 1870s.

At 5am on Thursday 8 August 1872 two distinct shocks in sharp succession were felt in Maldon and Baringhup. Local bakers Joseph Crossley of the Scotch Pie House and Alex McArthur were at work and both thought that the nearby Beehive mine had caved in. Patients at the Hospital and several mine workers were also startled by the shocks. At Baringhup young John Hayes, who was feeding his horse before riding to Castlemaine to catch the first train to Melbourne, thought his stable was about to collapse.

Those who felt the shock generally agreed that the rumbling came from the north and died off to the southwest. Old stories that Mount Tarrengower was a slumbering volcano were revived, with some hoping the quake might reveal new veins of gold.

Another earthquake that occurred at 10.20pm on Sunday 21 January 1877 was described in detail by the Tarrangower Times. There were some differences of opinion, but most people agreed that the shock came like a wave from the south. A rumbling sound was heard before the earth trembled and, although the sky was perfectly clear, after the shock two small black clouds were noticed towards the south.

The next day there was much speculation and gossip about the quake. Many had first thought that Warnock's Flour Mill in High Street had blown up. Others thought that the reservoir above the Shire Reserve had burst or the Powder Magazine at the top of Adair Street had exploded. Some expressed relief that the quake had not activated any of the district's old volcanoes. One wag said that when he was awoken from his sleep, he thought that the railway had finally arrived in Maldon.

One respected local couple were sitting at their dining table reading by the light of a kerosene lamp when the severe shock rattled their table and caused them to drop their books. They said the shock was followed by a rumbling noise, similar to distant thunder, lasting for about four seconds. When they went out into the street they saw dark clouds on the southeastern horizon.

The Times tried to provide a scientific explanation of the event. They observed that the rumbling caused windows and doors on the west side to be pressed inwards while those on the east side were pressed outwards. The tremor was then followed by a stiff breeze from the southwest. Reports of the quake came from Campbells Creek, Guildford and Yandoit but not from Daylesford. The Times then proposed that the quake originated at Mount Consultation, southeast of Muckleford, and radiated out until it struck Mount Tarrengower and then rebounded towards Maldon. They also referred their readers to the latest scientific writings on earthquakes.

WE were back at the Bridge tables again this week and the room was abuzz with many conversations going on at once. So much to talk about with the happenings during the past week and always looking forward to another Happy Day with plenty of good hands to make the day very pleasant.

We had another good number of players ready to take on the challenge once more, and once Ken had the draw organised and announced, it was onto the contest ahead of us. A solo player was needed, so Judy Mac took up the challenge and hoped the Associates were in good form!

As play proceeded, it appeared that big scores were being earned by the opposition when some partnerships made extraordinary bids. A double here and there soon added to the already depleted score, much to the dismay of the contract-making duo! This, of course, created an 'if and but' scenario, but really, what is done is done! On to the next board was the go!

It was with much eagerness that we settled in for our afternoon tea break and there they were! A delicious plate of sandwiches, courtesy of Maree. Now, with a quick look at the Birthday List and there were two birthdays to celebrate during the week – namely Maree and Newstead Jo, the latter unfortunately absent due to being unwell. Happy Birthday ladies!

We finally completed the rest of the boards for the day and it was then onto the scoring.

Ken and Mary were onto same and with a flick of the computer keys the day's results were revealed. In first place, with 45 points were Maree and partner Kerrie. A very excited duo and what a Happy Day for the birthday lady Maree! Second place went to Kevin A and Jan G with 42 points. Aileen and Jen were third with 38 points, followed by Ken and Fred in fourth place with 35 points. Congratulations to all as another Happy Day was had.

We will be back next week, that is for sure. Until then keep safe and warm.

Whatever your age group or skills please feel free to join us each Thursday at the Senior Citizens Rooms 1pm to 4.30pm to help us in our endeavours to

MGM Season Launch

MALDON Golden Movies has a new program of wonderful films, but it remains a surprise until Sunday 13 July when all will be revealed at a free afternoon tea and season launch. There will be also some other announcements, a spread of hot drinks and baked goods and a chance to catch up.

Needless to say, film-lovers can already mark the calendar because screenings will continue to take place on the third Thursday of the Month.

The next screening will take place on Thursday 17 July. Attendance is by membership, which is available at the door of any screening (payable in cash), with half-year memberships available for the rest of the year at $15 per person. If you've been curious about joining MGM and would like to know how it works, head to the afternoon tea to find out more; it's free and no RSVP is required.

MGM Season Launch and Special Announcements, Sunday 13 July from 3.15pm at the cosy and warm Maldon Neighbourhood Centre, 1 Church Street. NOTE: MGM will share all details of Season 2 following the afternoon tea. To stay up to date, follow MGM on social media or join the mailing list by sending a note to: maldon.g.movies@gmail.com.

Maldon Market is a true showcase of local talent—featuring hand-made, home-grown goods from our vibrant regional community.

This month, we're mixing things up with a few new stallholders filling in for regulars who are away. It's always refreshing to welcome new makers—it's what keeps the market lively and full of flavour!

You'll find all your fresh favourites like Sandor's produce and local pantry staples, plus seasonal apples from Pollards Orchards (Harcourt), in-season mandarins from Happy Citrus, and fresh oyster mushrooms (plus DIY grow kits!) from the Fungi Farm.

And good news—Off the Boat Port Fairy is back this Sunday!
This fantastic family-run business brings us freshly caught Aussie seafood—think S.A. oysters, local prawns, calamari and more—all sustainably sourced straight from the boat. Let's keep supporting them so they keep coming inland!

New this July:

- Wondermazing Honey Bees – bee products including honey mead
- Hot Chillie Mama – everything chilli
- Gloomy Garden Creations – hand-bound books
- CFM Creations – one-off visit by a local artist
- Blissful Creations – batik handmade, hand-dyed clothing
- Arttoo – hand-crafted pop culture collectables
- Australian Birds – beautiful bird paintings by a travelling artist (July only!)

At the gate and behind the BBQ this month is the Men's Shed, one of our treasured community groups. Donations are gratefully accepted and help fund their ongoing projects.

There'll be live music, plenty of food, coffee, and spots to sit under the old oak tree. So come along, say hi to our talented locals, and enjoy everything your community market has to offer.

Doggos OF THE Goldfields

Introducing our readers to their local doggies and what makes their tails wag!

TT: Thanks for smiling so well for the camera, Teddy.

Teddy: They are all my own teeth, not bad for a 10-year-old Maltese-Shih Tzu.

TT: That's true.

Teddy: I do have a metal pin in my leg.

TT: Oh my gosh, what happened?

Teddy: I got run over when I was two. I've heard there was probably an ABI* which is not 'Absolutely Brake Immediately,' unfortunately. There were operations.

TT: I'm so sorry. How are you going now?

Teddy: Well I get out and about a lot but I don't walk that much, if you know what I mean, wink wink.

TT: Smart. And do you have any hobbies?

Do you play ball or with toys...?

Teddy: Definitely not.

TT: Sorry.

Teddy: No problem, I just hate them.

I spend a few days a week in Bendigo with Oscar, a friend of mine who is a Shih Tzu. He's the only one who gets me and he understands my noisy version of playing.

TT: Yikes, glad you told me.

Teddy: Oh it's all for fun and games. But don't let my charming smile or small stature fool you, I'm a really tough cook- ie. Just ask the metal pin in my leg!

*ABI = Aquired Brain Injury

MALDON GOLF CLUB

ARBORIST WORK

OVER the next few weeks, arborists will be on course removing damaged trees and overhanging limbs. This is work that needs to be completed to maintain the healthy condition of our trees for the coming years. This will require the closure of the course to golfers and dog walkers at these times.

The closure dates involved will be advertised beforehand and 'course closed' signs will be put up at the entrances to the course. Please abide by these signs.

RESULTS

Sunny golfing conditions greeted this week's field for the July monthly medal. Several good scores were carded, but not good enough to break the strong form of Ian Long, who recorded another excellent round to win the monthly medal. Ian will now play off in the Medal of Medallists competition in November.

Winner	Ian Long	64 nett
Good scores	Bruce McNamara	66 nett
	Ryan Mullholland	66 nett
	Adrian Palmer	67 nett
	Chris Mullholland	69 nett

MALDON CROQUET CLUB

CROQUET SEASON COMES TO A CLOSE

THE grand final in Division 1-2 of the Northern District Croquet Association autumn pennant has been played between the Quarry Hill Galahs and Quarry Hill Wattlebirds.

In a hard-fought match, it was Chris Eiffert and Gayle Deary (Wattlebirds) who returned to form after recent losses and triumphed over Bernie Lacey and Col Scott (Galahs) 5(40) to 1(34).

The final score was not a true indication of how close this match was. All six games were close, won either 7-6 or 7-5. Chris and Gayle got off to a good start winning both doubles games 7-5. Bernie was then able to claw back one of the singles games against Chris 7-6. Gayle won both her singles games, the last with a brilliant jump shot through the hoop from five metres away. It was a fitting end to a great match and the croquet season.

Damien Kennedy

NDCA Division 1-2 pennant winners Chris Eiffert and Gayle Deary (Quarry Hill Wattlebirds) with Bernie Lacey and Col Scott (Quarry Hill Galahs).

MALDON PÉTANQUE CLUB

*Oh what a beautiful Morning, Oh what a beautiful day
We had a competitive game of petanque to play*

A beautiful sunny Maldon winter's day greeted us on Saturday for round 3 of the Golden Boule Round Robin tournament. We were playing our old friendly foes, the Pyrenees Club from Avoca. It was chilly at 10am, but the fire had us all warmed up and ready to go.

At the end of the first game, we stopped for morning tea. A tactical ploy as we had a magnificent spread provided by our cooks from hot sausage rolls to chocolate delights. We hoped our opposition would overindulge and would be off their game for rounds 2 and 3.

As the sunshine got warmer, unfortunately, our game cooled off. The end result for the day saw Pyrenees winning 6 games 19 points to Maldon 4 games 11 points. Congratulations Pyrenees.

*Rain, Rain, Rain
It was back again*

On Sunday it was raining in Maldon - all morning. Do we play? Do we turn up? 17 people did turn up and had a social chat and suddenly the rain became a light drizzle, so it was decided to have some social play until the rain came back. However, it did not return, so we ended up playing our usual three games. Because of the uncertainties of the weather, it was decided to have no entry fees and no prizes, just in case. Bev Forsyth was the winner for the day with 3 wins 22 points, but unfortunately did not get a prize or any championship points. A close second was June Hunter with 3 wins 18 points, third was Terry Hunter 2 wins 14 points and fourth was Viv Markham 2 wins 9 points.

Our next games will be on Sunday 20 July (weather permitting). Be there early for a 1pm start on the St Brigid's pistes, all welcome for the fun and games, the fire will be going. After the games we will be conducting our Annual General Meeting, all welcome to that as well.

Please Note: Training/practice is every Thursday at 3pm for the winter - again weather permitting. It is non-competitive and good fun.

Check out our website maldonpetanqueclub.com.au. Please support our sponsors: Community Bank Maldon & District and Cantwell Property (buy and sell trust Cantwell) and Boules Australia (our member Chris Przygoda) for all your petanque needs.

MALDON FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

ROUND 12 – MALDON V NEWSTEAD @ NEWSTEAD

MALDON 11.7 (73) DEF NEWSTEAD 9.18 (72)

In an enthralling encounter with long-time rivals, Maldon downed Newstead by one point in the dying moments of last Saturday's encounter.

A beautiful sunny winter's day at Newstead set the scene for a great game of football, and the first quarter saw both teams in a real arm wrestle to see who could gain ascendancy. This was to continue for the rest of the game, but Maldon's ball movement was better than that of their opponents. One point separated the teams at the end of the quarter.

In the second quarter, both teams kicked four goals apiece, but Newstead failed to make use of their opportunities, poor kicking being their downfall. Maldon's Bailey Brown switching between ruck and full forward was making a big impact on the game and, along with Noah Thompson, was giving Maldon's on ballers regular opportunities around the ground. At the half-time break, Newstead had a six-point advantage, with a scoreline of 6.8 to 6.2.

Third quarters this season have been Maldon's Achilles heel, but this time they came out with all guns firing to gain a small lead, kicking three quick goals. Again, Newstead's inaccuracy in front of the goal was to their detriment, but come the last break, they still held a slight lead of two points, but as the saying goes, "bad kicking is bad football".

The last quarter was played at a frenzied pace with both sides not able to gain any sizeable lead, with Newstead blitzing their goals, but the great defensive work of Maldon's back six, particularly Darcy Kelly and Xavier Noy, kept pushing the ball forward.

With two minutes to play and scores level, Damian Wust, who had worked tirelessly all day, gained possession of the ball in Newstead's backline and, sensing time was running out, kicked the ball deep into Maldon's forward line. The ball was spilled through the goals for a rushed behind giving Maldon a one-point lead moments before the siren sounded.

Jubilant scenes were seen in the rooms post-game as Maldon, with an even team effort, enjoyed their third win of the season.

Next week Maldon are at home to the Maryborough Giants and will be chasing back-to-back wins.

Seniors' goal kickers: A. Woodman 3, B. Brown 2, B. Coffey 2, N. McLaren 2, D. Wust 1, C. Buchanan 1

Best Players: D. Wust, N. Thompson, A. Woodman, D. Kelly, X. Noy, T. Rowe.

RESERVES

MALDON 5.7 (37) DEF BY NEWSTEAD 11.12 (78)

The boys battled hard all day but were unable to have the impact on the scoreboard that we needed. We need to regroup and set our sights on a big effort next week against the Giants. Let's all have a big week on the track and focus on putting it into play next weekend.

Goal Kickers: D. Ross 3, C. Ryder 1, R. Hocking 1

Best Players: J. Pritchard, P. Barry, C. Baker, A. Turner, A. Brasser.

MALDON 6.4 (40) DEF NEWSTEAD 5.4 (34)

It was a great win by the U14.5s on the weekend. We had the better of the first half. An injury just before half time to Charlie Whelan evened the game right up. The team fought it out to the end and hung on to win by a goal. Callum, Seth, Oliver (with 4 goals), Will and Lincon all played well. Our three permit kids all did really well too. Jack, Charlie (lucky it is just a sprained ankle) and Davey.

Goal Kickers: O. Merlo 4, Z. Turner 1, W. Govier 1

Best Players: J. Farley, C. McGee, S. Gross, O. Merlo, W. Govier, L. Andrea.

11.55

MALDON 2.1 (13) DEF BY NEWSTEAD 8.10 (58)

The young Donners made the most of the later start on Saturday, enjoying the sunny weather. They were into the contest early, with Jennings kicking a quick response goal midway through the first quarter. From here, the youngster took the pedal off a bit, allowing Newstead to score unanswered through the second and third quarters. As is the team's mantra, they never gave up and kept the pressure on the opposition for four quarters, with the reward of a late goal by Dyer in the final minutes of the game.

Goal Kickers: N. Jennings 1, D. Dyer 1

Best Players: D. Robertson, D. Dyer, T. Merlo, M. Baker, N. Jennings, R. Ballinger.

NETBALL

MALDON 14 DEF BY NEWSTEAD 75

Despite the tough result, we really demonstrated teamwork on the court. We came together as one, communicated well, and led with confidence. Our attacking movement around the court was fluid, and we executed some great flick passes into the ring.

Defensively, we worked hard all the way down the court, showing commitment and team spirit. There was a clear sense that everyone was there for each other on the day.

Best on court: Sophie Bennett – for her composed leadership, depth of play, and excellent on-court control.

B GRADE

MALDON 6 DEF BY NEWSTEAD 58

Today just wasn't our day – the ball simply wouldn't drop for us. We had the play and the drive, but luck wasn't on our side when it came to finishing in the ring. Despite the scoreline, we showed strong character and resilience throughout the match. Several players stepped into unfamiliar positions and truly owned their space, which was great to see.

While some of the plays we implemented made things a bit tricky for ourselves, the intention behind them was solid. Our defence was kept on its toes and continued to work hard. We managed to execute a few great drives and some sharp passing, but unfortunately it didn't convert on the scoreboard.

Best on court: Michaelah Van Dolderen - for her relentless defensive effort and determination.

C GRADE

MALDON 25 DREW NEWSTEAD 25

It was another challenging weekend game for the girls as they went up against Newstead. However, with our full squad back together, we had a fantastic chance to keep pace with them – and we absolutely did! The girls maintained their composure beautifully, turning rebounds into crucial goals with exceptional defence and dynamic court play. Our goalers demonstrated remarkable confidence with every shot they took.

Best on: Charlene Chaplin.

UNDER 17S

MALDON 34 DEF NEWSTEAD 14

The U17s are moving along well as the weeks progress, matching their opposition in terms of way and ensuring they are remaining in the top 4 teams on the ladder. The game this week against Newstead was a good test to see how they are travelling at this point in the year, and they did not disappoint. Their attacking was exceptional and their pressure relentless as Newstead tried to keep in the game. However, the Maldon girls were able to convert and increase their lead at every change to run away with a brilliant win.

Best Players: Jess Davies, Alice McIntosh.

UNDER 15S

MALDON 31 DEF NEWSTEAD 19

The girls were looking forward to a big game against Newstead and with a 2nd versus 3rd game it was set to be a close and interesting game. The U15s were out of the blocks and on the scoreboard in the first few minutes, going neck and neck with Newstead. The pressure from the Maldon girls was sensational and as the game wore on the Maldon girls showed exactly how far the team had developed and were able to come away with a momentous victory, moving them into second on the ladder.

Best Players: Celine Marsh, Alice McIntosh.

UNDER 13S

MALDON 15 DEF BY NEWSTEAD 21

Our Under 13 girls took to the court this week with determination and heart as they faced off against the undefeated Newstead team. From the first whistle, it was clear this would be a tough contest, but our team rose to the challenge, keeping the score close and pushing Newstead all the way to the final siren.

Every player gave it their all, showing incredible teamwork, resilience, and spirit. The defence worked tirelessly, the mid-court pushed hard with every transition, and the shooters stepped up when it mattered most.

Best on went to Elsa, who was outstanding in defence — her pressure and intercepts were crucial in keeping Newstead's scoring opportunities to a minimum. Mia was also awarded best on for making a strong impact after moving into the shooting circle and slotting some brilliant goals under pressure.

Best on: Elsa and Mia.

UNDER 11S

MALDON 12 DEF BY NEWSTEAD 18

Our Under 11 team took on Newstead this week in a tough game. Although we didn't come away with the win, the girls showed incredible determination and spirit right to the final whistle. After a slow start, they regrouped and fought hard to keep the scores close, showing great teamwork and resilience throughout.

Mabel was awarded Best On for her strong drives through the midcourt and her amazing shooting under pressure. Tilly also had a standout game, impressing with her smart positioning and relentless effort in reoffering, always creating space and options for her teammates.

Best on: Mabel and Tilly

MALDON BOWLS CLUB

LAST Friday night the club held a very successful Community BBQ night as part of Maldon in Winter. As usual Susan and John from the Complete Unknowns provided their usual wonderful live music.

It was great to see the many new faces enjoying the night.

The children who were present enjoyed toasting marshmallows on the outside fire pit, and the bowling under the lights was very popular. As usual, our raffle time featured many wonderful, donated items. Our next Community BBQ night will be held in September.

With our Saturday pennant season fast approaching, work is underway preparing the playing surface and organising potential teams. It promises to be an exciting time for our growing club.

At the recent Dunolly Winter pairs Jim and Trevor were three games winners. Peter and Mike won two games whilst Pam teamed with the local district champion Chris, gaining some valuable experience.

Good Bowling all.
