☆ Grade 5/6 loved getting to know Archie, the therapy dog.

Last week Maldon Primary School received the first of four visits from two very special guests: therapy dogs Archie and Mo, two members of the PAWS in Schools Program.

The school was able to access the program after a recent state government investment of $217.8 million (over a four-year period), to support student mental health and wellbeing (including $200 million over four years and $86.9 million ongoing funds to create a Schools Mental Health Fund). Rural and regional schools are the first to receive the funding, and they have been given a list of evidence-based programs and initiatives designed to give schools confidence in identifying programs, staff and resources that will improve mental health and wellbeing outcomes for their students.

Maldon Primary School Acting Principal Alisa Burdett said she loves the idea of having a therapy dog in the school, "However, there can be unplanned costs and additional responsibilities with having our own school dog.

"By having the PAWS in Schools program come out, it allows us to still have therapy dogs visit the school without the associated requirements of having our own school dog.

"The children have enjoyed the time with the therapy dogs, and we look forward to our next three days with Archie and Mo," said Alisa.

Evidence shows that the use of therapy dogs in a school setting can contribute towards improving the overall well-being of students. It allows for meaningful opportunities for social and emotional learning in both whole class and small group settings.

The use of therapy dogs in schools can assist children to re-engage with onsite learning, help with emotional regulation, social skills and coping strategies. Therapy dogs can also help children to recover from trauma, help cope with mental health and understanding boundaries and consent.

PAWS in Schools Educator Melanie Rundle said, "The scope of our PAWS in Schools program is flexible, ranging from a supporting role in the classroom for specific students to running support group sessions (relaxation, predominantly hands-on

“We really enjoyed our visit to Maldon Primary School.

The school has a lovely atmosphere, and the children were so well behaved and polite,” said Melanie. The PAWS in Schools program is delivered by Therapy Animals Australia

“A well-trained, confident and happy therapy dog can be an invaluable resource for supporting the social and emotional needs of individuals, as well as fostering a sense of community spirit and overall wellbeing.”

Tarrangower Village energy upgrades

TARRANGOWER Village is investing in the future with a recent upgrade of 15 hot water services.
Taking advantage of the Victorian Energy Upgrades scheme (www.victorianenergysaver.vic.gov.au/save-energy-and-money/victorian-energy-upgrades), energy-efficient heat pump hot water services have replaced the old electric hot water storage systems.
These upgrades were at no cost to residents and came at a fortunate time as energy costs are expected to increase.
According to Sustainability Victoria, the heat pump hot water systems typically use around 60 to 75% less electricity than a conventional electric hot water system. This is because the electricity is used to operate the heat pump and doesn't heat the water directly with an element.

“The systems are excellent”, says a Tarrangower Village resident. “My power usage has gone down by more than 15% compared with last year.”
In addition to saving money, the heat pump hot water systems reduce carbon emissions and contribute towards a net zero carbon future for Victoria.
Tarrangower Village is an 18-cottage, independent living retirement village, located in the heart of Maldon. It is run by a volunteer Committee of Management – which is seeking new Committee members to join the small team.
If you are interested in finding out more about living at Tarrangower Village or volunteering with the Committee, please visit www.tarrangowervillage.com.au/ or contact secretary@tarrangowervillage.com.au.

Battle for Australia Day

ON Wednesday, 7 September, the Maldon RSL Sub Branch will commemorate 'Battle for Australia Day'.

Why do we do that? Battle for Australia Day is a commemoration recognising the battles that Australia fought to defeat the Japanese during the war in the Pacific during World War II. Australia was under direct attack between 1942 and 1945. The Japanese were bombing the coast of Australia, Darwin in the Northern Territory, the coast of Western Australia as far south as Exmouth, and the coast of Queensland down to Townsville. Midget Submarines were seen in Sydney Harbour, and politicians were developing Australia's last line of defence, known as the 'Brisbane Line'.

Back in Maldon the hospital closed its 'blackout curtains' as the evening fell, volunteers sat in a tin shed on ANZAC Hill spotting aircraft, and an air raid siren was installed on the roof of Cooks Garage.

The men of our town signed up to fight this war. They fought in Darwin, Malaya, Borneo, New Guinea and more. Our nurses committed themselves to the defence of our country also and served proudly.

Our honour boards and photos hanging on the walls of our hall honour those that served. Some of these men did not return. Children were born never seeing their fathers. Mothers, wives, and siblings watched their family members return, changed men. Some of them would suffer depression, malaria, skin disorders, digestive disorders and more for the rest of their lives. Everyone suffered.

Maldon RSL commemorates the sacrifice everyone made to keep our country safe. We acknowledge how much they suffered and we thank them for their service.

Lest We Forget.

The service on Wednesday 7 September is at the Cenotaph in the gardens and commences at 11am.

Spring firewood collection season opens

THE designated firewood collection areas in state forests across Central Victoria have opened, with restrictions still in place for some state forests to prioritise firewood for local residents.

Access to Central Victorian State forests is limited to local government areas found within Central Victoria.

Forest Fire Management Victoria (FFMVIC) Team Leader Values and Assets Planning Amy Groch said firewood collection restrictions introduced at the start of the Autumn season this year would continue, with some designated collection areas restricted to residents of specific local shires.

"While firewood is free to collect, supply is not unlimited. This means firewood needs to be managed responsibly to ensure environmental sustainability," Ms Groch said.

"We had a very positive response from community members following the introduction of local restrictions in Autumn. Thank you to everyone who has followed the rules."

Firewood can only be collected during Autumn from 1 March to 30 June and Spring ☆ Mulch heap.

THE brigade was called out at 7.47am Sunday, 28 August, to a mulch heap fire on Parkins Reef Road, at the Oswald mine site. The ignition was from spontaneous combustion, the pile having been dumped there for some time.

The brigade urges people to be careful where they leave mulch piles and monitor them appropriately, as this one was not only a fire hazard, but was also situated metres from a power pole and could have had serious consequences. Two units from Maldon Fire Brigade attended and resolved the problem quickly and efficiently.

WALKING TOGETHER towards Makarrata

A Journey Towards Solidarity – Janet Phillips

Makarrata = 'coming together after a struggle, facing the facts of wrongs and living again in peace.'

I would like to Acknowledge the Traditional Custodians, Elders past, present and future of Djaara Country, on which I write this. I also Acknowledge other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who live on this land, or who are reading this. I was born on GunaiKurnai Country, my ancestors are primarily of English origin and my two sons were born on Djaara Country.

I think my journey of solidarity really started in the early 1990s when with friends we became early supporters of the Pay the Rent campaign, and we were invited to join in on Invasion Day commemorations. We dressed up as convicts, went aboard a tall ship in Port Philip Bay, launched a longboat and landed on St. Kilda Beach. We were met there by local Boon Wurrung and Wurundjeri people, spears at the ready. Our (role-playing) Commander kindly requested and was given permission to come ashore, where we were warmly welcomed by local people. As newcomers, we signed a pledge to honour this Country and the people of this Land.

On moving to Djaara Country in the mid-90s, local treasure Vic Say introduced me to Reconciliation Learning Circles, self-directed exploration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture and history, of colonisation and the impacts of racism on our countrymen and women. As a small group at Castlemaine Community House, we created a safe space to challenge one another and to learn what Reconciliation could actually mean for us. One community activity our group initiated was Women's Story-telling Day. We invited local female Aboriginal Elders to share their stories with us as together we created a large wall hanging to represent our connection to Country, local lore and people. It was displayed in Green Goes the Grocer for many years.

In the early 2000s my sons were in the Community Class (a multi-age parent-guided classroom) at Winters Flat Primary School. We were very fortunate to have Elder Aunty Julie McHale as our Lead Teacher. Aunty Julie's generous offerings and teachings deepened our knowledge of local country and our connections to local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

In 2012 our family took a year to travel through the Central Desert and Top End, finally arriving in Gapuwiyak, Northeast Arnhem Land NT. The boys enrolled in school and my partner and I took on community development roles. Later I also developed another project where I mentor a local woman, Minay Wunungmurra, to manage a whole of community Nutrition and Wellbeing program. We had fun creating community events like Family Cooking Competitions and Women's Bush Camps, all underpinned by the ever-present nature of health issues in remote communities. Over these eight years, Minay has become a respected local authority on Yolngu nutrition and is about to take on mentoring the program herself.

In 2019 I started work in Darwin developing a social enterprise that works side-by-side with remote Aboriginal Corporations to build both-ways capacity in social and human services delivery. And now, I am back in Castlemaine, a member of the Friends of Nalderun and part of a group hosting Self Reflection Conversations in Castlemaine. These are facilitated conversations for those who wish to become good allies to First Nations people, to reflect on white privilege, racism and decolonisation.

I have found in my relationships and conversations with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, that an open hand is always extended; I always hear 'We can do this together, my sister'. I believe this open hand is linked to an open heart and an open mind and I aim to embrace this in my journey toward being a good ally. As we collectively move closer to enlivening the Uluru Statement from The Heart and making real Voice, Treaty, Truth, I invite you to consider how you too can become an ally. All you need to do is to start somewhere and follow it everywhere.

If you are interested in joining a Self-Reflection Conversation, please email: reflection-conversations@gmail.com.

Nalderun Education Aboriginal Corporation is a service that supports the Aboriginal Community, led by Aboriginal people. Many people and organisations in the Mount Alexander Shire contribute to Nalderun; the name is a Djaara word meaning 'all together'.

More information can be found at www.nalderun.net.au.

Steve's Wine pick

Hanging Rock
Winery Macedon
Ranges 2019
Pinot Noir

Macedon Ranges has consistently been very well regarded for its Pinot Noir and for good reason. Arguably Australia's coldest grape-growing region, it is cold by world viticultural standards and produces wines that have much in common with the cooler regions of France.

This wine was made using traditional methods including open vessels and wild yeast fermentation, with hand-picked fruit from a variety of clones in Hanging Rock Winery's 'The Jim Jim' Vineyard.

One-third of the bunches were left whole during fermentation to promote carbonic maceration which in turn softens the wine, before being left to age for 12 months in a mixture of new and old French oak.

This Hanging Rock Winery Pinot Noir represents excellent value and is drinking well now.

Castlemaine Central Wine Store is committed to sourcing great wines from smaller family-owned producers that you may not easily find elsewhere. Cheers!

Volunteer Grants Program open

VOLUNTEER organisations across the Bendigo electorate are being encouraged to submit expressions of interest for the 2022 Federal Volunteer Grants program.

Member for Bendigo, Lisa Chesters, said it's a sought-after grants program.

"In previous years, these grants have been very popular with Bendigo and Central Victorian volunteer organisations, so I encourage you to get your expression of interest in quickly.

"Our volunteers and their organisations do a great job in creating a sense of belonging and social inclusion and building stronger local communities.

"They show incredible commitment towards their organisations and take pride in their work.

"Following the pandemic, Australia is in a civic crisis. We've seen a collapse in the number of people volunteering."

"What's great about these grants is the versatility. From new equipment to volunteer training, the funding can go towards practical projects to assist local organisations.

"Across Central Victoria, our volunteers really are unsung heroes of our communities, and these grants will help them to continue their vital work," Chesters said.

Eligible organisations can apply for grants between $1,000 - $5,000, which can be put towards small equipment costs, fuel costs for volunteers, training courses and compulsory background checks.

Applicants must submit an expression of interest by 12pm Monday, 19 September, which will be reviewed and scored by an independent community consultation committee.

Groups that are successful in this process will then have the opportunity to apply for the grant directly with the Department of Social Services.

For more details or to submit an expression of interest, visit: www.lisachesters.org/volunteergrants.

Wetter than average spring for Australia's east

THE bureau expects a wet spring for most of the eastern half of Australia with a high chance of above-average rainfall.

The Spring 2022 Climate and Water Outlook, released this week, reflects several climate influences, including a negative Indian Ocean Dipole event to the west and the chance of a La Niña returning this spring increasing to around 70 per cent.

Bureau of Meteorology senior climatologist Dr Lynette Bettio said, "Where soils and catchments are wet, and streamflows are high, further rainfall this spring will increase the risk of flooding for eastern Australia."

"In northern Australia, the first rains of the wet season are likely to be earlier than normal for much of Queensland and the Northern Territory."

October is the official beginning of the wet season across northern Australia.

Further, Dr Bettio said a positive Southern Annular Mode (SAM) is also likely, which pushes weather systems south, bringing wetter easterly winds to NSW and fewer cold fronts to western Tasmania.

Dr Bettio said parts of Western Australia and western Tasmania are likely to experience below-average rainfall this spring.

Almost all of Australia is likely to experience warmer than average nights, while cooler days are likely for large parts of the mainland except the tropical north.

We encourage communities to keep up to date with the official forecasts and warnings on the bureau's website and BOM Weather app.

Healthy Soils Project seeks local farmers

☆ The Healthy Soils project is helping farmers assess, improve and monitor their soil health.

MOUNT Alexander Sustainability Group's Healthy Soils team is looking for commercial farmers with soil issues within a 50-60km radius from Castlemaine.

This Healthy Soils Project offers the opportunity for 20 participating farms to receive free soil constraint assessments and soil testing, as well as assistance with developing a soil health management and monitoring plan. Participating farmers will also be invited to help road-test planning tools and information resources developed under the project. The focus of the project is to provide farmers with practical ways to benchmark current soil health constraints and plan and monitor how their soil is responding to farm practices aimed at building and maintaining soil health and farm productivity.

Over the next two years, field days will be held on local farms already working to build and maintain healthy functioning soil. Dates and locations for field days in September will be announced shortly.

This project is funded by the federal government's Smart Farms Small Grants: Soil Extension Activities program through Mount Alexander Sustainability Group and Federation University. Bill Grant, Research Fellow at Federation University, will head the project, along with MASG's newly appointed Healthy Soils project officer, Mikaela Beckley.

"We're focusing on how farmers can cost-effectively benchmark their current soil constraints, plan practical and cost-effective ways to rectify these constraints, and then monitor changes in soil performance without the need for frequent laboratory testing of soils", says Bill. "Laboratory tests are useful and should be undertaken as needed, but there are fairly simple field and 'kitchen table laboratory' tests, as well as precision farming and nutrient management tools, that can help farmers monitor and manage their soil all year round."

The aim is to have a diverse range of participating commercial farms within the region, including grazing, cropping, orchards, groves and vineyards, market gardens, 'Conventional', 'Regenerative', and 'Organic'. A small landowners network for those farming for some income on smaller, more 'lifestyle' properties will also be supported by the project.

If you are a farmer interested in obtaining more information, participating in the project, or attending the upcoming field days, please contact Bill Grant via email b.grant@federation.edu.au or phone 0407 882 070.

Olivet Christian College

Christian Education in Small Class Environments

Olivet Christian College was established over 40 years ago. It is a vibrant, non-denominational Foundation to Year 10 school located at Campbells Creek in the Mount Alexander Shire near Castlemaine.

We currently run buses from as far away as Maryborough and Kangaroo Flat in Bendigo. Olivet Christian College has a history of being a caring, family-friendly small school that provides a Christian-based, well-rounded education for its students.

At Olivet, we believe that education is much more than obtaining knowledge. At Olivet, knowledge is underpinned by wisdom and good character with the aim that each student is well prepared for life. We place a high value on ensuring students achieve sound literacy and numeracy skills to provide a solid foundation for all future learning and educational engagement.

As a Christian school, we seek to work with parents and guardians to develop principled, thoughtful, and analytical young people prepared to take a purposeful place in the community. Olivet is designed and operated to achieve long-term results related to student understanding, dispositions for lifelong learning and service in the Kingdom of God.

Olivet is an ideal place where your child can grow, learn, and thrive in a safe, secure environment. Olivet has a history of being a caring, family-friendly small school that provides a Christian-based, well-rounded education for its students. Each student is nurtured and encouraged to achieve their potential, while learning in an atmosphere where they are seen, known, and valued.

We place a high value on ensuring students achieve sound literacy and numeracy skills in order to provide a solid foundation for all future learning and educational engagement. We are committed to equipping our students with the ability to read well. We know that this is an essential skill needed to be successful at school and also to be able to function well in our society. Research has shown us that reading does not occur naturally the way speech does but must be taught by building pathways in the brain that link speech sounds to written symbols or letters. This phonic decoding approach translates into fluent reading and comprehension.

At the Secondary School level, we continue to build on the solid foundation laid down in the Primary years. When our students move forward in their education, or into the workforce, they historically, are well prepared to take their place in society and to be a positive influence in our culture.

☆ The whole school visited the Werribee Zoo last term as part of the Positive Start Initiative funding from the Government.

Be Kind, Be Brave, Be Your Best are the values the staff, students and families uphold at Maldon Primary School.

Well-being is front and centre for every student at the school. Teachers ensure that they build positive relationships with all students in the school through well-being programs, conversations and check-ins both in the classroom and out in the yard. Our school-wide positive behaviour support framework ensures consistency across the school, creates a calm learning environment and teaches children the skills and strategies of how to be socially successful. Vance, a grade six student, reflects on his time at Maldon Primary School. "All the kids here are easy to get along with. The teachers know us well, and they can see when we need help or need a break. They will give us options and ideas to help us make decisions".

Maldon Primary School's mission is to create a community of enthusiastic, curious learners who can problem solve and think critically and creatively. Students are encouraged to be active learners and to have a positive mindset toward learning. The school offers a range of subjects, and the teachers teach to the level of each individual student. Koebi, a grade 4 student, says, "The learning is great at our school. It is not too easy and not too hard. The teachers will help you if you are struggling to get started and then you can do the work by yourself. I love working in maths because there is always something new to learn". Evi, a grade 5 student, believes, "The teachers give you work at different levels and then you choose what level you need to work at to challenge yourself". In addition to the core curriculum, such as literacy and numeracy, the school runs weekly specialist classes for all students in Japanese, Visual Arts and Performing Arts. It also offers a range of extra curricular activities, including private Music Tuition, the Victorian High Abilities program and lunchtime clubs such as lego and chess.

Students also have many sporting experiences and the opportunity to progress to higher levels in events such as swimming and athletics. Evi says, "I really like the opportunities you get, like going to the next level at cross country and athletics".

Maldon Primary School's vision is to ensure students have strong connections to their peers and the local and global community so that they have a sense of belonging and can be happy, courageous and confident community members. The school connects with a number of local community organisations, such as the RSL, Croquet Club and the Men's Shed, to expose the children to the different groups available in our town and enable them to interact with other members of the Maldon community. Visiting the residents at Maldon Hospital has always been a highlight for students; however, since the start of COVID-19, visits have not been able to occur. The school has recently re-established links with the Maldon Hospital, with children becoming penpals with the hospital residents. The students and staff are excited to reconnect, even if it is in a different way. Isla, a grade five student, enjoyed visiting the residents at the hospital in the past. "We used to go to the hospital to talk to the residents and keep them company. I've missed this, and I think being a pen pal is a good idea to keep in touch with them."

With an enrolment of 80, from Prep through to grade 6, all students know each other at the school and often join together for games during class and play times. Downball, soccer and chasey are always favourite games in the playground, and there is usually a mix of age groups participating together. Students look out for each other and help each other in the yard. Maldon Primary School is definitely a community within the wider Maldon community, and we love it!

EDUCATION FEATURE

Discover Steiner Education

Castlemaine Steiner School and Kindergarten (CSSK) offers a dynamic education from Kinder to Year 8.

The nationally accredited Steiner Curriculum meets the developmental needs of students, providing a balance of academic, artistic, and practical learning experiences. Through a contemporary Steiner Education, students are guided to step authentically into the world with a well-directed internal compass, creative and critical thinking and a deep connection to the country.

This year there are some exciting changes for CSSK. The school has welcomed a new Principal, Nerrida Johnson, and nearly completed a new Science, Design and Technology Resource Centre, including laboratory, art and multimedia facilities for the Senior Years Program in Years 7 and 8.

Senior Years at CSSK provide a great option to springboard into secondary education within a small, welcoming learning environment. In addition to working with their Class Teacher, students engage with Specialist Teachers for Maths, Science, French, Art, Drama, Music and Outdoor Education. On graduating from Class 8 at CSSK, students can continue into the Steiner stream at Castlemaine Secondary College (CSC) or move into Year 9 at one of the many high schools in Central Victoria.

At the other end of the learning journey, CSSK now also offers free three-year-old Kinder as an additional year to the well-established, nurturing, and popular Early Childhood program, which develops essential school readiness skills before the more formal Primary school journey, commencing in Year 1.

For families interested in learning more, the next school tour will be Friday, 9 September, at 11.30am, plus a Senior Years Information Evening

ST. MARY'S CASTLEMAINE Respect Resilience Responsibility

St Mary's is a place that inspires the minds of young learners through an educational process based on current research and a highly engaging contemporary learning environment.

The extensive 'green space' provides a sensual, emotional and conscious connection to the land, air and sky. We take advantage of the ecological connection available in our natural outdoor spaces filled with birdlife, mini-beasts, chickens and expansive gardens, including kitchen garden spaces. The accessibility to this environmental connection is a primary context and necessity in a culture with an emerging reduction of green space. The experience and promotion of sustainable practices is a critical aspect of our educational philosophy at St Mary's.

Technology brings access to information that otherwise would not exist. But when it turns into entertainment or becomes a substitute for experiencing reality, adults have made a significant error in judgement. Technology at St Mary's is used sparingly, as our research indicates that overuse can have dire consequences.

Success and flourishing at St Mary's begins with belonging and relationships. Children learn to work hard with subject-specific knowledge and skills for deep understanding, proficiency and application.

With learning and improvement as the goal, we do not feel the need for motivational stickers, ribbons or student of the week. Achievement comes from effort, and though failure can be disappointing, it can be survived. Our view is that quality transferrable learning is constructed from the errors we make, challenging and stretching our current skills and knowledge.

Our professional staff are committed to ongoing study and development in applying the science of learning, neuroscience, systems design and sociology to education.

If you would like to hear more about our innovative learning community, feel free to phone our welcoming administration staff to organise a tour.

Respect, Responsibility and Resilience

☆ Students are proud of the attractive school grounds.

Newstead Primary School provides a warm, caring and safe learning environment for the children of this country town.

Students are encouraged to engage in the local community as they develop their full potential. They are allowed to grow in self-awareness and social responsiveness and to succeed socially, physically, academically, creatively and emotionally.

Resilience, respect and responsibility are fundamental values developed through a process involving the whole school community.

The school's original 1877 redbrick building still stands proudly on the significant school grounds. Additional large classrooms cater for flexible learning, and a modern separate multipurpose building is used for the Art program and other school and community activities.

The grounds and gardens offer an attractive environment, with many shady mature trees, flower and plant beds, a veggie garden and large sporting areas including two playgrounds, basketball and netball courts, and footy and soccer pitches.

Newstead Primary Schools' curriculum has a strong focus on literacy and numeracy. Students are also offered specialist programs, including art, LOTE and music lessons for guitar, woodwind, brass, strings and piano.

Another vital school initiative is 'Daily Fitness'. This unique morning exercise program teaches the children leadership and teamwork skills. A cross-age framework supports students as they develop relationships in all school sectors. Older students guide younger students to develop the practical skills-based and gross motor skills they need to enjoy and build competence in sport-based activities. If you pass Newstead Primary School soon after 9am any day of the week, you will hear dance beats and pop music, and you will see the younger kids at the school stretching, star jumping, and jogging on the spot during the morning physical activity program.

Highview College

Education through Wholeness

The Gift of a School Uniform

The Highview College school uniform has been designed by students. They wear it with pride because it is comfortable and contemporary.

Uniform expectations are relevant to the world of work, to every student building a sense of belonging and to every student being equally confident to be 'at the table' and to minimise peer pressure. Learning is multifaceted, and self-management can be one of the biggest challenges during adolescence.

Having a school uniform does not deny an individual's right to express themselves or to explore their identity. It does, however, teach students how to fulfil multiple roles in their lives: the world of learning, the context of work and a variety of recreational settings.

Wearing navy blue socks does not inspire learning; It does, however, overtly demonstrate regard for shared expectations, for the commitment being made by teachers and for themselves as valued members of the College family.

Highview College students know how to interact respectfully, with humility and with confidence. Having a uniform contributes to the development of those social virtues in adolescence.

The years between ages 13-17 represent the most vulnerable period for young people. Having a uniform in Secondary School can curb pressure and delay poor life choices. Having a uniform and clear expectations about how it is worn is our gift to our students and to their parents.

EDUCATION FEATURE

ST. AUGUSTINE'S PRIMARY SCHOOL

Principal: Mrs Sonia Turner

St. Augustine's Primary School has been proudly educating children since 1854. As the only Catholic school in Maryborough, our community ensures that all children are nurtured and aspired learners, who 'Have life and have it abundantly' (John 10:10).

Working in partnership with parents, the parish and the broader community, St Augustine's is committed to nurturing students through their educational journey with a deep connection to the teachings of Jesus Christ.

Stay Safe, Take Pride, Act Justly and Respond Positively is what we explicitly teach at St Augustine's. We believe in the teaching of behaviours to support the social and emotional learning of each individual through positive reinforcement, clear expectations and celebrations of achievement in all areas.

St Augustine's proudly offers students a range of learning opportunities including Indonesian for all students, Foundation to Year 6 leadership opportunities, coding and robotics alongside 1:1 devices for our Year 3/4/5/6, an expansive library, a variety of sporting opportunities, incursions, excursions and exciting camps.

Spring firewood collection season opens

from 1 September to 30 November.

"Designated firewood collection areas are selected for a range of reasons including the availability of firewood, community safety, and to protect sites of cultural and environmental significance," Ms Groch said.

"You are only allowed to collect two cubic metres per person per day. You can only collect a total of 16 cubic metres of firewood per household per financial year.

"Most people do the right thing and stick to the collection limits and local restrictions; however, authorised officers will be patrolling parks, forests and reserves to catch those who aren't.

"Firewood collectors may be asked to prove their residential address when collecting firewood.

"Please be aware of the environment around you at all times and the safety of others when in state forests; trees may fall or drop limbs without warning."

For more information on firewood collection rules and to find your closest designated firewood collection area, go to <https://www.ffm.vic.gov.au/firewood/firewood-collection-in-your-region>

Information on local collection restrictions will be available on interactive maps, released on 1 September 2022.

Financial assistance is available for concession card holders and people on low incomes who rely on purchasing firewood. More information about this support can be found at <https://www.ffm.vic.gov.au/firewood/energy-concession-and-support>.

Eggs are fantastic for a fitness diet, if you don't like the taste just add cocoa, flour, sugar, butter and cook at 350° for 30 minutes.

EACH week Camille from Cut and Colour Maldon (Francis Street) puts a sign out the front with a funny saying to help brighten her customer's day.

Know Your Local - Anne Borg - Part One

☆ Anne at 16 years old.

I am not sure how one person can fit so much into 89 years of living! Anne has experienced so many losses, difficulties and achievements throughout her life. It was impossible to condense her life, so this Know Your Local will be a two-part series.

"I was born in Perth; I love the Perth weather and miss it. We usually go gold detecting in Kalgoorlie with friends every year, but unfortunately we didn't get to go this year due to COVID. I found a 19-ounce nugget on my 82nd birthday at 8am. I was detecting with six men, and no one found anything except me, because I'm fastidious. I sold it for $36,000. They're now calling that track 'Annie's Track'.

My mum was blinded when I was born; the doctors did it to her. She had glaucoma (we didn't know much about what happened, but my brother Ernest, an ophthalmologist, had a lot to do in detecting glaucoma and handling it better). Her irises were cut, and the wrong medication was applied; thus, she was left blind in one eye and left with a part smokey section in her second eye, but was unable to see much else.

Ernest wanted to fix Mum's eyes, so he became an ophthalmologist. He is an amazing man. He's one of the first ophthalmologists to be sent by the government to India and Africa. He never was able to fix Mum's eyes. He's the second oldest. He's 94 years old now. We're the only two left out of seven siblings. He's written a book about our lives.

I'm writing my own story now that I want to turn into a book one day. I talk about growing up in a very deprived family with the most beautiful, loving parents. People used to talk about the Finkelstein family being such a united, loving family.

Our grandparents were Orthodox Jews who lived in Russia. They left and walked for two years, all the way to Israel. Our dad was left in an orphanage. His father and stepmother moved to Perth, and when he was 14 years old, he moved with them. He was never accepted by his step-mum, and they put him in a shed as a farm hand. He had to catch brumbies and sell them to make money.

Then he heard about this lady that had also come from Israel; neither of them had any English nor education. Her dad wouldn't allow him to marry her as he had no money and did not speak English. So my dad entered a competition, riding a bucking bronco. He won 150 pounds, and after that, her dad said he could marry (my mum) and gave him a block of land.

My parents didn't have it easy. They moved to York before moving to the heart of Perth. We lived in a hovel behind a shop; we had no clothes, no underwear, no shoes and dad was always gone, travelling into the bush to try to sell goods and fresh food to farmers.

I was the fifth child and the first girl. I never saw my brothers until dinner time; they were always selling papers before and after school. I was treated so differently from the boys. My sister and I would get up in the morning (Mum would be off washing), and we'd make our own sandwiches and grab a weet-bix and walk to school. Mum was too busy to do my long hair. I remember searching and searching for a pair of panties to put on, and often went to school without any. As Orthodox Jews, we were persecuted. Every day I'd be running home from school, and we'd have rocks thrown at us and be beaten. The quickest way home was over a gate in the back lane, over our picket fence and to safety.

I spent a lot of time doing the housework and looking after my baby brother. I was eight years old when he was born, and I was 11 when he died of diphtheria. I was his little mother.

Our mum filled the whole backyard with vegetables. She was an amazing woman, with fortitude, which she gave to me.

Then when I was 13 years old we moved to Hollywood in Perth, where my parents brought a shop, before moving to Fremantle.

My brothers had moved to Melbourne, so when I turned 17, I moved in with them. It was the first time I'd ever had a bedroom. Mum put me on a sewing machine when I was four years old. At 12 years old I needed bras, we were so poor, so I tried to make my own. It didn't work. I did start teaching myself to sew other clothes.

The third brother, Max, did an apprenticeship with Muscolini's tailor in Melbourne. He took me to a men's gabardine coat factory and told them I was experienced. They soon learnt that I wasn't. But within three months, I was the sample hand - because I was a perfectionist.

I worked up and down Flinders Lanes; there were hundreds of warrens of factories with all kinds of garments.

When I got married, my brother bought me a big sewing machine. Unfortunately, I married a man who was very lazy and unable to provide me with adequate money to live on. We had two children together. I was very sick all the time, and we were very poor. I remember one time, going to the shops with five shillings and buying a spine bone and doing the best I could with it.

My husband ran up gambling bills and I'm not argumentative, so I just took what he gave me.

We moved to Wonga Park, where my husband got a job training seeing eye dogs at 12 pounds a week, and a free cottage to live in with no amenities. We had our third baby. We were only there three months, and then the bushfires came. It was February 22, 1962. That morning he (my husband) went to Melbourne and took the car. I was on my own on a 10,000-acre reserve with a five-month-old baby, a four and five-year-old boy, and a dog and bird.

I had a big English pram, so I put the animals in the pram with my baby and struggled down the unmade gravelly road and walked to the next farm. I remember it was so hot, and we were all in shorts. I wet the baby's nappies, and I was going to put the children in the dam, but suddenly my husband turned up with the car. He didn't even talk to me, just ran to our house with 17 other men.

I was in shock. I'd spent hours and hours on my own with the children, with the smoke, the black sky and the sound of screaming horses.

Then this man came in a massive dairy truck and lifted the pram up and ran. Three minutes later, the fire came through. We lost everything. The man drove us to Croydon. A taxi driver I knew took us to Melbourne, to my sister's. We were black and stank of smoke, and when my sister saw us, she put her arms out and grabbed me.

Uniquely Newstead

by Newstead Primary School Students

The Newstead Primary School community have a passion for books and reading that spills out every year when they get to celebrate Book Week. The costumes are diverse and inventive, with students loving the challenge of working out what characters each person has come as.

This is the first time in three years the students have been able to do their parade and enjoy the experience as a whole school. Each class then continued the day by reading the Children's Book Council of Australia's winners for 2022. The love of books instils a love of learning that is evident in events like these at Newstead Primary!

LAST Friday Nancy and Mike interviewed Deb Baird, pictured; she and Doug are preparing Porcupine Village for the public and the huge bonus expected to Maldon’s tourist economy.

We ranged over employees, amputations and severed hands, dentist drills and glamping – but kept returning to the Golden Nugget Restaurant and arguably the most beautiful toilets in the world. There is also a collection of wildlife: kangaroos, donkeys, goats, chickens, miniature pigs and a wombat. We paid musical tributes to Judith Durham, Uncle Archie Roach and Olivia Newton-John, castigated young people’s speech and accepted Ian Slattery’s gracious apology and request for Turkish music.

Today EC and Alison meet Donna-Marie Wood, manager of the Kangaroo Hotel.

Next Friday Elizabeth (that’s EC) and Kev meet Pete and Mardi Gurrie of the laudable Sunday House Project to talk about meal donations. Appetising.

true love, but as time goes by, Miriam wonders whether all is well with Ally as she moves to the country and gradually withdraws, finding excuses every time Miriam offers to visit. Their relationship has always had its ups and downs, and Miriam tries to give her daughter the distance she so clearly wants. But is all as it seems?

When the truth of her daughter’s situation is revealed, Miriam watches in disbelief as Ally and her children find themselves increasingly vulnerable and cut off from the world. As the situation escalates and the law proves incapable of protecting them, Miriam is faced with an unthinkable decision. But she will do anything for the people she loves most in the world.

A stunning, gripping novel that goes to the heart of a mother’s love and asks what any of us might do when faced with a threat to the people we hold most dear.

My Own Words* by Ruth Bader Ginsburg with Mary Hartnett and Wendy W. Williams

My Own Words is a witty, engaging, serious, and playful collection of writings and speeches from the woman who has had a powerful and enduring influence on law, women’s rights, and popular culture. Wide-ranging topics include gender equality, the work of the Supreme Court, being Jewish, law and lawyers in opera, and the value of looking beyond US shores when interpreting the US Constitution. Throughout her life, Justice Ginsburg was a prolific writer and public speaker. This book’s sampling is selected by Justice Ginsburg and her authorised biographers, Mary Hartnett and Wendy W. Williams. Justice Ginsburg has written an introduction to the book, and Hartnett and Williams introduce each chapter, giving biographical context, and quotes gleaned from hundreds of interviews they have conducted. This is a fascinating glimpse into the life of one of America’s most influential women.

Riding with Giants* by Peter Holmes à Court

International businessman Peter Holmes à Court left the executive world and found himself living deep in rural France with only his seven-year-old twin girls for company. Struggling as a single father in a foreign country, unsettled by the sudden move away from a traditional job, and completely baffled by the society around him, his only plan: to ride L’Étape du Tour, the challenging amateur leg of the Tour de France. In an effort to find some new friends in the community - and a bike for the race - he discovered the region’s small bicycle factory.

MALDON BRIDGE CLUB

A great turn-out this week with five tables in play, and we all had great expectations of where we would end up at day’s end! It brings to mind the following poem, which truly describes a day at Bridge on Some Days.....

Bridge is like a lot of games
I’ve played throughout the years.
Some days are full of smiles
Other days there’s almost tears.
Some days you think your rating
Is way below your skill.
Other days you’re sure your mind
Left and went ‘over the hill.’
Some days you can’t wait to play
So you can show your stuff.
Other days you can’t wait to leave.
You know you’ve had enough.
Some days the cards are with you
And everything goes right.
Other days you can’t make anything
Though you try with all your might.
The moral of this story is ‘unknowns make games fun.’
Where would the challenge be -
If you always won? :-)

Now, who would be feeling elated or perhaps despondent as the game concluded?

Scores were compiled in quick time with Danny back at the ‘helm’. Those to ‘show their stuff’ were as follows: in first place with a great score of 80 points were Mary and Danny. Second place went to Newstead Jo and Mark with 67 points. Castlemaine Jan and Louise were third with 63 points. Lillian and Kevin gained fourth place with 58 points. Gretchen and Castlemaine Judy were fifth with 57 points, followed by Fred and Ken with 56 points. Well done to all, and we will all be back next week to ‘try with all our might’ to win a ‘hand’ or two again!

The lemon slice, along with a warm beverage, was most welcome and thank you to the Maldon Hotel team for their hospitality each week.

Whatever your age group or skills please feel free to join us each Thursday from 12.45pm to 4.30pm to help us in our endeavour to

Judy McKnight

He was soon spending his days there: photographing his custom bike being built, meeting the locals, and learning about the rich traditions of artisan craftsmanship. Trying to enjoy the simple things and become a better father, Peter slowed down and started to reflect seriously on history, industry and the structure of our modern economy. He and his daughters finally began to put down roots and understand the beauty and calm of a small-scale existence and a very different approach to excellence and the well-lived life.

This is one man’s compelling, informative and funny story about the wisdom of children, the nature of work today, and the science of bicycles.

Maldon Athenaeum Library reviews

On Friday, October 26 1917, the ladies of the Baringhup Red Cross Society, headed by Mrs Elizabeth Bell and Miss Gwen Phillips, held a dance and concert at the Baringhup Library Hall. The most important part of the evening was the unveiling of the Baringhup district honour board. The board was the gift of Cr Thomas Bell, a long-time representative of the Baringhup riding, who had been Maldon Shire President in the previous year.

The honour board, described as ‘a beautiful piece of work’, was made of Australian blackwood and inscribed in gold lettering. The top of the board read, ‘Baringhup Boys who served the Empire in the Great War 1914-191 ‘. As the War was still in progress its end date could not be included. Below the heading, in two columns, were the names of 64 local men who had enlisted.

The board was fixed to the wall behind the hall’s stage. On the night, it was covered by two large Union Jacks until it was time to unveil it. Maldon Shire President, Cr John Bowen, as the chairman for the night, thanked Cr Bell for his generous gift and said that the community could not do too much to recognise the deeds of their boys.

Bowen then called on the MLC for Maryborough, Alf Outtrim, to unveil the board. Outtrim said he performed the ceremony with mixed feelings. He was proud of the local men who were doing their duty, but as someone who had 28 relatives on active service, he realised that it was the mothers of these soldiers who were making the greatest sacrifices. He hoped that the Allied armies would soon prove victorious over Germany. The unveiling of the honour board was followed by a concert and supper.

It should be noted that the honour board was not produced at the end of the Great War, but while the worst of the fighting was still taking place. This is perhaps emphasised by the fact that the Baringhup State School had unveiled their honour board a month earlier. Neither of the boards seemed to have later included those who enlisted in the last year of the War.

The ‘Baringhup Boys’ honour board probably hung in the Baringhup Library Hall until the 1950s, when it may have been removed prior to the sale of the hall in July 1958. What then became of the board is unknown. Only the top of the board survives. It is currently in the Baringhup Hall supper room along with the Baringhup School board.

This information was supplied by the Maldon Museum and Archives.

Musings from 'Precious'

RECENTLY I made it to the Newstead Arts Hub for their exhibition: Precious.

It was great to connect with people in our community through those carefully selected objects. My personal favourite was the twisted piece of corrugated iron that had been chewed up and spat out by the tornado in 1976. It was such a sculptural piece, a meeting of nature and man-made objects resulting in something completely new and full of meaning.

And it got me thinking about the ways that our material world is important and tells a story. Christianity can have a reputation for scorning the material, preferring the spirit over and above the flesh.

But Christians believe that God has revealed an imprint of the divine through the created order itself. And one of the greatest wonders of Christian theology is that God has not remained far off but has entered into creation. This is, of course, the story of Christmas, where Christians celebrate the wonder of God who, in humility, was born into humanity, into the dirt and the muck of everyday life.

And so it makes sense that Jesus commanded his followers to do physical things to worship God. We call these Sacraments and understand them to be outward and visible signs of an inward and spiritual grace. They are basic everyday things given holy significance: a meal we call the 'Lord's Supper', and a once and for all bath known as 'Baptism'!

I love the way Christian faith understands God's connection to places, people and things and deepens my own inherent sense that these are all important and full of meaning.

And I am always thankful for our artists and the ways they challenge and provoke our thinking. I hope you got to enjoy the exhibition. If you did, no doubt it provoked particular memories and ideas for you too. Thank you, Newstead Arts Hub!

Maldon 30 Def Natte 25

The U17 Team went in full force on the weekend with a full lineup of players. The Maldon team were ready for their challenge against Natte Bealiba for the start of their finals campaign.

In what was going to be a challenge versing the top side, the Maldon team knew what they had to bring to topple the ladder leaders. It was all Natte's way for the first half, and heading into the third quarter, the Maldon team trailed 17-8 Natte's way. With the challenge set, the team took to the court with all the will, determination and positivity to come only one goal down heading into the last quarter.

The score see-sawed for the first few minutes of the last quarter until excellent defensive pressure from Claire Hamilton, Abbi Shepherd and Ciara MacKenzie turned the tables. With an unbelievable intercept from Ainsley Taft to head back into the attacking zone comprising of Tahlia Peaslee and MacKenzie Shepherd, the goalers Tayah Doyle and Sophie Zammit consistent all game, the team went four goals up in a blink of the eye. The final score was again Maldon's way 30-25, sealing a well-deserved victory and heading to a preliminary final.

Best: Ainsley Taft.

Maldon 32 Def Royal Park 28

The U15 team entered their first final with a bit of hesitation as Royal Park had beaten them the week before by one goal coming into this game, so it was a rematch.

The team were out of the blocks quickly in the first quarter and shot to an 11-5 lead over Royal Park. The second quarter saw Royal Park respond and fight back, with the Maldon team holding tight in defence and converting goals. At the halftime break, it was 20-16 Maldon's way. The third quarter saw Royal Park go deep, and going into the last quarter, the Maldon team were behind 26-24. However, as they have proved all year how tough and resilient these players are, they dug deep with Mia Blake, Eva Gross and Ciara MacKenzie in defence and they got plenty of intercepts. The midfield of Tiffany Williams and Maddy Drohan provided plenty of drive into the goal ring with MacKenzie Shepherd and Jess Davies converting, with Maldon taking out the win 32-28, earning a week off and through to the Preliminary Final.

Best Player: Eva Gross.

MALDON GOLF CLUB

GOLF last Saturday returned to a two-player team format with players in eager competition for the club's 4BBB Championship - a major Honourboard event in the golfing season.

4BBB events normally rely on both team members reasonably sharing good scores, but this was not the case for the winning team of Glyn and Bob. Glyn had an excellent round with many pars, while Bob's contribution was limited to just a few holes. Good team golf from Peter and Steve and Wayne and Hutch ensured a competitive Leaderboard.

A big day of golf tomorrow with Round 2 of the Club Championships being concurrently played with the September Monthly Medal and Jack Long Matchplay. Golfers will be challenged by the heavy conditions on the course after the recent heavy rain storms and the lack of ball run on the fairways.

Know Your Local - Anne Borg - Part One

My brother Max, the tailor, took me in for three months and taught me tailoring (I was a dressmaker). Max was always there for me. He taught me everything; how to drive and use tools.

After three months, Max helped organise for me to buy a government house in Heidelberg for 11,000 pounds. It was a three-bedroom house and was unfurnished.

I put a sign in the window, 'sewing'. Every few days, my sister-in-law would arrive with a big bag of repairs for my brother's business. I'm pretty sure I pegged (took in) every boy's pants in all of Heidelberg!

I wrote to the government, asking for a sewing machine, and they sent me a house full of furniture and an old treadle sewing machine. After a while, Max helped again and gave me a big industrial machine.

I remember there were massive piles of dirt all around the house, leftover from when they dug the sewerage, and I moved it all myself, using nothing but a cardboard box.

I worked for my brothers at the Heidelberg house for five years. I asked them to keep all the money in a safe. My husband had never been very good with money, and there were a lot of bills to be paid from things he'd bought. It took me a year to pay off debts my husband had incurred.

In the end, I said to Max, 'I've got to come work in the shop one day a week. I need to see people; I am going crazy all on my own just sewing away.' I had a little Mini Minor, and I would take the kids and pick up my sister and her kids (so four children and two adults in the tiny mini minor) and I'd drop the kids at Jewish school - Bialik College. I had been granted free education for a while.

When Danny, my second child, was four-years-old, I noticed that he couldn't lift the latch on the car, but Yvonne (who was not even three) could. I'd watch Yvonne walk up the stairs, and Danny would slide himself up backwards. He couldn't even carry my handbag. I realised he was very weak!

He was diagnosed with Muscular Dystrophy. I was told he wouldn't live past 11.

I thought to myself, 'What can I do to force this, to get air into his blood?' We didn't know much about the disease; there were only nine cases of Muscular Dystrophy in Australia at the time.

I worked out that every mouthful that I gave him counted. I'd give him six Vitamin E tablets a day, plus other vitamins and good protein. He ended up being the oldest person to live with the disease out of all his friends at Yooralla. He got to live to 26 years old.

After he died, my sister-in-law told me, 'We always thought you were being silly with his food.'

Danny was very clever and very quiet. He attended the Yooralla School and his carer found him a job at the Red Cross as their editor. I had taught him to read at a very young age, and he was excellent at English.

My brother Max helped me organise a second mortgage, and I took the seven thousand pounds I had earned working for my brother and bought a house in Bentleigh. Then the bad times started.

SLIGHTLY SUNNY SUNDAY

☆ Stepping out.

☆ Tony's stance.

ON Sunday, 28 August, six teams of cheerful piste artistes gathered in slightly sunny almost spring-like weather for our final winter games on the Penny School piste. The salted grassy knoll had died quietly and become a barren wasteland instead of a hazard.

The practice of throwing a coin to determine which team plays first at the start of each set of games was considerably enhanced by the presence of a communal coin sitting on an eroded tree stump. Eroded by busy white ants, who had eaten through all the bark.

As the games progressed, the range of sounds emitted as players put their full force behind each shot was such a cacophony that someone suggested we should record the games and put out a CD (remember them?) titled, for some reason Pétanque Porn.

Social pétanque players are noted for their sartorial splendour, with a range of hats and scarves of every hue. Despite somewhat entertaining asides, the games were quite fast and furious, except for one, which dragged on and on and on, point by point.

Eventually, first place and the winners' chocolates went to Cap'n P, Elaine and Mme Bleue, with 2 wins and +16 points. Second place went to Jenny and Geoff, with 2 wins and +8 points. Followed in third place by Ann, Antoine and Judy, with 1 win and -2 points.

Gaz, Carole and Steve came fourth, with 1 win and -4 points. Kevin and Joan came fifth with 0 wins and -5 points. Lucky last were Phil, Maxeen and EC, with 0 wins, -13 points, and the losers' chocolates.

Our next games will be in spring AT LAST, on Sunday 11 September, on the Penny School pistes, commencing at 2pm SHARP. See our notice and phone number in the TT Community Diary to get in touch if you would like to become part of this delightful group of piste artistes. It is an afternoon of light banter and endless entertainment.

☆ Under 11.5s Football Team with Coach Ross Egleton.

Overview

THAT is our first week of finals done and dusted!

What a tremendous club effort with 6/10 games played coming out with wins. The determination and passion was evident throughout the weekend with some really closely fought games to take the teams into the next step in the finals campaign. This is a testament to the coaching staff and how hard they worked all season with their teams.

Next week we head into Semi-Finals with the following line-ups:

Saturday 3 September – Reserves take on Newstead @ 12.50pm

Sunday 4 September – B Grade take on Avoca @ 1pm
A Grade take on Natte @ 2.30pm

Locations are still being determined by the League and will be posted on the club's social media.

Football

Seniors

Maldon 56 Def by Lexton 78

Unfortunately, that's the end of the road for our Senior team after an elimination loss to Lexton by 22 points. We started off well and had a quarter-time lead, but that was where it ended and we never had the lead again for the rest of the day. The effort and intensity was there, but the skill and fitness wasn't.

Best: Kyle Winstanley, Billy Miller, Hayden Kelly, David Wilson, Max Johns and Julian Lockwood.

Reserves

Maldon 40 Def by Trentham 63

The Reserves took on Trentham in the qualifying final, with a berth in the preliminary final. Kicking with the aid of a slight breeze in the first term, the boys opened up a 17-point lead at the first change. Trentham were able to chip away at the lead over the next two quarters to take a 3 point lead into the final break. Brayden Saint put us back in the lead early in the final term. However, after some missed chances Trentham was able to take advantage of theirs to run out 23 point winners. Shaun Burchell and Lachie Josey worked tirelessly through the midfield, with Pat Cummins repelling many forward thrusts.

Best: Shaun Burchell, Lachie Josey, Pat Cummins, Brayden Saint, Luke Dyer and Beau Kitchingman.

17.5s

Maldon 51 Def Avoca 38

The team were a little patchy in our first qualifying final against Avoca. But as they do, the Maldon team found a way and got the job done with a hard-fought win to earn themselves a week off.

Best: Bailey O'Dell, Blake Clarke, Charlie Baker, Finian Mackenzie, Blayne Cananzi and Liam Anton.

14.5s

Maldon 81 Def Carisbrook 4

In our qualifying final against Carisbrook the team didn't hold back. In a clinical performance, they held Carisbrook goalless to earn a week off. Izaak Mason and Levi Mason were outstanding. The boys are in fantastic form at the moment as we await our next opponent. Well done lads - fantastic win.

Best: Izaak Mason, Levi Mason, Brodie Doyle, Tom Hamilton, Jordan Hardy and Jack McLeod.

11.5s

Maldon 21 Def by Trentham 35

Maldon tried their hearts out but went down to a better side at Avoca for the elimination final. Many players rose to the big occasion, with Piper playing like a rover and getting the hard ball. Heath was creative and willing himself to win the contest and Chayse attacked the ball to our advantage. Although a disappointing result, 2022 was a growth year for individuals and as a team, and we achieved the five Fs – Have Fun, Be Friends, Get Fit, Play Fair and reach Finals. Special mention to Lisa for being Team Manager, Hayden Coffey for umpiring and all the helpers and supporters and also to first-year players who improved out of sight and helped with our success – let's keep playing!

Best: P. Marshall, H. Powell, C. Thompson, Z. Slickerodt, S. Gross and A. Powell.

Netball

A Grade

Maldon 41 Def Trentham 37

The A Grade team was always going to have a tight game, and from the first whistle, the game was a nail-biter with Maldon taking the lead by 1 goal 9-8 over Trentham heading into the second quarter. The second quarter was again tough going for both teams, with neither giving any space to the opponents. Maldon got a slight upper hand heading into the third quarter 18-16 to lead by two goals. The third quarter was again goal for goal, and with each player going toe to toe, the teams could not shake each other. Maldon was still ahead by 2 goals heading into the last quarter 30-28. The last quarter saw the exceptional defence of Hayley Peake and Claire Hamilton making it difficult for the Trentham goalers to find the ring. The mid-field of Taig Weir, Carly Murdoch and Meg Tong made it tough for the Trentham mid-field to get easy touches, and all passes were pressured exceptionally well down the court. The combination of the goalers Morgan Walker, Katie Tong and Jaylea Ford were able to convert from limited opportunities during the game in spite of pressure applied by the Trentham defence.

Best: Claire Hamilton.

B Grade

Maldon 29 Def Trentham 28

The B Grade team jumped out the blocks in a big way on their Elimination final on Sunday. Alex Cummins was on fire in the goal ring, with Zoe Backway making brilliant space and working very well with the likes of Sarah Blake and Emily Zammit feeding the ball into the goal ring. The team were up 11-8 first quarter, however, Trentham were not going to back down, and after the second quarter, the Maldon team were trailing 15-18 Trentham's way. The defence held strong all day with Emma Webb's intercepts, Renee Williams, Abbi Shepherd and Georgia Spokes, putting up a great defensive structure. The third quarter saw the Maldon team again take the lead, and we were one goal up heading into the last quarter. In a last quarter that saw the lead change nine times, with no team giving an inch, at the final whistle it was the Maldon girls who were able to come away with an excellent first victory by one goal to start their finals campaign and earn a ticket to the Semi-Final.

Best: Georgia Spokes.

C Grade

Maldon 30 Def by Natte 47

We knew Natte had a score to settle from the home and away season. We had to pull out all the stops to be able to get this game over the line; the girls ended the first with only a point in it. But after half time, Natte come out with a bang and pushed their lead out. Sadly, the girls lost and had their season ended! I am so proud of the season they had, coming from the 10th spot to make finals; we have some unfinished business coming into 2023; this isn't the end for us.
